

Ms. Stewart-Mitchell's DOL

Correct all errors (punctuation, spelling, capitalization, grammar).

Note: there are no hints to help you!!

Day 1-

1. I writeing a report called The orphan trains of New York.
2. My friend Les and I can learn you about this trains.

Day 2-

1. In 1853, the children's aid society of new York seed thousands of homeless children.
2. Charles L Brace the founder maked a unusual proposel.

Day 3-

1. The Childrens Aid Society shipped thousands of childs to the midwest and west.
2. Yes Charles Brace thought that raiseing them children in gooder environments was important.

Day 4-

1. An ad appeared in the daily record our newspaper, before the orphan train's arrival.
2. In dowagiac Michigan forty seven children found new homes in a single week.

Day 5-

1. Les said "Some of the children led normal, pleasant lives with their new families.
2. Other children however were mistreated: some were overworked others were even beaten.

Day 1 -

1. Of all the ghost stories Mr Jefferson told i personally enjoyed the cheyenne story called the ghost owl.
2. The cheyenne feared the owl, they thought of them as a ghost that came back for revenge

Day 2 -

1. "Mr Jefferson did the first nations people really tell stories with ghosts as characters" asked Jason.

2. Yes they did Mr. Jefferson said, and the stories include many different kinds of ghosts.

Day 3-

1. Like scientists everywhere, Curie record her theorys processes and findings in notebooks.

2. More than seventy five years later, them notebooks are still to dangerous to be handled.

Day 4-

1. Lucia asked, "didn't the Curies work result in the use of radiation therapys to treat cancer"?

2. Yes Lucia peoples later learn that radium could kill diseased cells.

Day 5-

1. One of the most greatest celebritys of modern science are Marie Curie the discoverer of radium and polonium.

2. She worked with Pierre Curie, her husband together them won the Nobel Prize in physics for thier work with radioactivity.

Day 1-

1. "A hermit crab for example employs an empty shell as it's home," Mr. Pitts added.
2. Whom wants to visit old orchard beach this weekend I have a chart that tells exactly when to expect low tide.

Day 2-

1. Last tuesday Mr Pitts explain that at low tide water retreats, uncovering many fascinating sights.
2. He said, "you can see crabs starfish urchins clams and many varieties of seaweed.

Day 3-

1. i said to mr. Pitts "Some students wondered if tides were realted to the swayng of the earth in space?
2. H e said, No tides mainly result from the moons gravitational pull on the Earth.

Day 4-

1. Your book, When the tide goes far Out, conveyd much information about tides
2. now I know one difference among a neap tide and a spring tide a spring tide is more higher.

More DOL Resources...

See <http://mckinley.cr.k12.ia.us/New%20Site/8thGradeDOL.htm>

6.

“Whom was Mrs. Jack” uncle Hector asked me? +4

“Mrs. Jack” i said, “was the nickname of Isabella Stewart Gardner, an unusual and lovely woman. +4

7.

After her husband's death, Mrs. Gardner assembled a priceless collection of paintings statues and other works of art. +5

I said, “we can see these next June at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in Boston Massachusetts.” +6 8.

My teacher told us students, “Mrs. Gardner opened her museum to the public on January 1 1903.” +3

Ms. Gavriel said, “The art treasures and the building is unique Hector.” +2 9.

Mrs. Gardner loved Italian art, and Fenway Court her museum look like a Venetian palace. +4 because of a statement in her will nothing in the museum can be changed or moved. +3 10.

"I have heard many stories about Isabella Stewart Gardner," said Adamma my friend. +3

"Well she was certainly a unconventional and completely charming person," I said to her. +5

11

My teacher said, "These facts will fuel your speculation about the Arab world"

"More than 185 million people speak Arabic" said Ms West, and most of them are Muslims."

12

later I said, "The Arab world is comprised of many different nations."

I know Arab Americans whose ancestors came from five nations Algeria Bahrain Oman Syria, and the united Arab Emirates.

13

Among 1880 and 1924, the United States receive the first major wave of arab immigrateion.

Someone asked I if most of them peoples came from Syria or Palestine?

14

I once readed a narrateion about a Syrian peddler, it was The laugh peddler by Alice e. Christgau.

Then ms. West said to me, "the author called the man a "jolly, lovable peddler."

15

Name the most famousest Arab American entertainers living or dead.

Who shall I name three people immediately come to mind: first Jamie Farr, second F. Murray Abragam, third Danny Thomas.