Web Literacy Bingo

Discover peers' web literacy habits with this meet & greet activity

Directions: Travel the room and share your web literacy knowledge and habits with your peers. Mark off the corresponding square - or write down the person's name - whenever you meet someone who…

Share	Protect	Code & Compose	Contribute	Navigate & Remix
Has an email account.	Always uses the same password.	Has a blog.	Can explain "open educational resource."	Has done a reverse-image search.
Has a Twitter account.	Always uses a different password.	Has a webpage.	Has shared something with an open license.	Has remixed a project.
Has an instant messaging account.	Can explain what "https" means.	Has made a webpage.	Has run a web literacy or digital literacy workshop.	Has embedded a video.
Has an Instagram account.	Can explain "two-factor authentication."	Can explain a "stylesheet."	Can explain GitHub.	Has embedded an audio file.
Has a Facebook account.	Can explain "encryption."	Has written a computer program.	Has a GitHub account.	Has adapted a technology lesson for their local learners.