Ouray County Performing Arts Guild

2026 Application for Susan Hillhouse Performing Arts Scholarship

The Susan Hillhouse Performing Arts Scholarship is a $1,000-$1,500 scholarship opportunity for enrolled and full-time college/university students who are pursuing a performing arts degree (major or minor) or an arts-related teaching degree (major or minor) and who intend to stay active in the arts after receiving their degree – either as a performer or teacher. One individual will be chosen per year. Students may apply for consecutive years (and students who previously received the scholarship may apply again for consideration).

Instructions:

1. Fill out the OCPAG Susan Hillhouse Performing Arts Scholarship Form. (Click on "File", then "Make a copy" in the menu. Then save the new file as your own.)

2. Submit one letter of recommendation from a professor, teacher, or community performing arts leader to support your application.

3. Submit a current copy of your transcript (an unofficial copy is fine)

To submit, email all materials to ocpagscholarships@gmail.com. (Please note in the email subject line: Susan Hillhouse Scholarship Application. Your recommendation letter may also be emailed separately by the writer of the letter.)

Deadline for receiving applications is May 31

OCPAG Susan Hillhouse Performing Arts Form

Date
Applicant Name
Mailing Address
Email
Contact Phone
Name of College or University
Current Year at College/University
What degree(s) are you currently enrolled in?

How many credits do you have towards the performance /education degree?
Time left to complete degree
Have you received an OCPAG scholarship before?
Please write a short essay (max 500 words) describing your course of study, accomplishments, and future goals in performing arts/arts education. We are looking for candidates who are passionate about their field(s)!

The OCPAG Scholarship Committee will review the scholarship applications and will make its recommendations for funding within two (2) weeks of the deadline and notify applicants.