Society Description

The National Honor Society is an organization that is committed to both educational excellence and service to our school and local community. Members are inducted to the Henry A. Tirrell Chapter of National Honor Society at Norwich Free Academy. Traditionally, the National Honor Society is responsible for enhancing school pride and service within the community. Members have enhanced the quality of our school community by participating in programs and events to enhance school spirit, such as tutoring classmates and volunteering their time at Project Outreach. Activities such as these allow National Honor Society members to utilize their leadership skills for the greater good and to make a difference in our community. Students participating in the National Honor Society are expected to continue this tradition by being involved with Chapter activities and by embodying the four pillars of National Honor Society: Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character.

Membership
