

Basic Camping List

- Cub Scout Class A Uniform: Shirt, Belt, Neckerchief, slide
- Class B Uniform (Pack 359 T-shirt if you have one)
- Shirt - long sleeve (bring layers)
- Pants/Jeans
- Underwear/Socks - bring extras! Always go to bed with a dry pair!
- Jacket/coat (Evenings will be cold)
- Shoes (Must be closed toe. No sandals or flip-flops!) - keep an extra pair in your car
- Sleepwear/Long underwear
- Hat
- Towel and washcloth (Nice to have if it rains or a heavy Dew.)
- Mess kit, fork, refillable cup (please put your name on the cup)
- Water bottle/hydration bag (ex. Camelbak)
- Bedding (Sleeping bag/blankets - remember, temperature ratings on sleeping bags are for survival, not comfort! Plan accordingly, it is supposed to get below freezing Saturday night!)
- Pillow
- Foam pad (Air mattresses and cots not recommended for colder weather, you will want something between you and the ground/cold air!)
- Flashlight(s) with extra batteries
- Raincoat/Poncho/Boots
- Toiletries (toothbrush, mirror, soap, comb, deodorant, etc)
- Medicines (These must be kept in your tent and put up at all times)
- Camera (extra batteries)
- Insect repellant
- Sunscreen
- Basic first aid kit
- Tent with rain fly
- Ground Cloth (Plastic or tarp to go under the tent. Keeps moisture from coming through the bottom of the tent.)
- Hammer (To stake your tent down.)
- Folding/Camp Chair (for meals and campfire)
- Firewood - There is only one fire per campsite allowed in the fire ring and must be supervised at all times if burning. Fires must be out and smothered before leaving the site or going to sleep.
- Cooking gear
- Food for lunch Saturday and Breakfast Sunday
- Snacks for between meals and hikes Water is available but you might have to walk to get more, so I always bring a little extra to have at my tent
- Fishing gear
- Toilet paper (better to bring your own incase it's scarce)
