THE GIRL THAT FELL INTO ANOTHER WORLD

Chapter 1: the New Town girl

Have you ever thought it was possible to just fall into another magical world? Well, that is what happened to Mulani. She is a 13-year-old girl from New Town. She loves school, playing with her friends and doing math problems. She really, really likes maths! Her story starts in Green Hills though, so let's start there.

One day her parents told her that the family will be moving from Green Hills to New Town because Dad started a new job there. This made Mulani sad. One day after school she spoke to her friend Odet. Odet asked her, "What is wrong? You look really sad." Mulani replied, "I am moving to live in a new place. I am sad because I will lose you." Odet tried to cheer her up by saying, "Don't worry, you won't lose me. As long as you remember me, I will always be there."

On the trip, Mulani didn't speak. When they got to the new house, her parents tried to cheer her up. Her mom told her, "You can make new friends here darling. Everything will be alright." But Mulani was angry and shouted at her, "No! I don't want new friends!" She ran for the front door and her dad shouted after her, "Please wait, it is dark and dangerous outside. Don't go." But she didn't listen. As she was running, she fell into a strange hole with glowing rocks. She fell and fell. Mulani began to faint, and she passed out.

Chapter 2: The New World

Mulani eventually woke up. She was confused and frightened. She wanted her parents and regretted shouting at them. "I want to go home," cried Mulani. "Don't cry," said a voice. Mulani had a huge scare. She looked around and saw two children. But they were strange. They looked like people but had cat ears and a tail. Mulani screamed, and so did the children. She started to cry even more. The girls felt bad for her and tried to cheer her up. "We can help you get back home." The child said. "How?" Asked Mulani.

“Our father is the chief of the beast people. He also knows a lot of things.” The children said. Mulani started feeling better. “Thank you. But what are your names?” she asked. The one child responded, “I am Chelsea, and this is my sister Akisha. Nice to meet ya!” The girls became friend and then set off going to the beast people village.

On their journey, they saw many magical things. They saw giant Ladybugs that swam in the lake of forbidden diamonds. They passed the fairy forest of the singing trees that had voices like angels. And in the distance, they were able to see the great candy kingdom, which is busy as always. But it was getting dark, and they got the gingerbread village. The sisters knew the gingerbread man chief and asked if they could spend the night in the village. He allowed it and the next morning they left to get back on their journey. Eventually they got home, but there was a problem, the chief didn't want Mulani to enter the village because no strangers were allowed.

Chapter 3: Going Home

When the chief learned that his daughters were with the stranger, he became angry and went to the village gates. He scolded at them, “what are you doing with that alien? It can be dangerous!” The girls got upset and yelled back, “She is our friend, and her name is Mulani. She is lost and scared and wants to go back home! Please help her father!”

The chief has never seen this side of his daughter and agreed to let Mulani in and help her. “I will take my best warriors and we will take you to the World gate.” The Chief said. Mulani was so happy. Chelsea said, “We will go with you, so don't worry.” Mulani thanked everyone and then rested up for the journey.

They set out on their journey. It took 7 days to get to the World Gate. Mulani saw many more wonderful things and made many memories with her new friends. Eventually they got to the gate and Mulani became sad. “I don't want to lose my friends again.” She said. Akisha told her “You will never lose us as long as you remember us.” This reminded Mulani of something someone special said to her before. She felt happy, said her goodbyes and stepped through the Gate. The next thing she was in her own world, and luckily close to her home. She went inside and apologised to her parents, and she lived a good life from that day on.
