

Hey TJ,

you don't know me but I was doing some market research and came across ABE Nation and I wanted to share this quick ad script.

I've noticed you guys currently aren't running any ads, but I bet you are going to find this useful.

I have written a UGC ad script example for the ABE Ultimate Pre-Workout.

I believe this one would be a banger, definitely worth testing.

You can find the ad script below and I would love to hear your thoughts :)

Ad Script:

Why I threw away all my pre-workouts... and why you should too.

I've tried about 20 different pre-workouts and most of them tasted terrible.

I was about to quit taking pre-workouts altogether until my gym bro recommended me this one.

The taste of this one.... It's out of this world!

On top of that, I'm getting bigger pumps than ever before.

*Seriously, just look at this. *pictures of comparison

My favorite flavor is Blue Razz, but they got 10 different ones to choose from.

I've tried them all and I gotta say... none of them disappoint.

Plus it doesn't have any gluten and dairy which makes my stomach really happy - don't judge me I've got a weak stomach.

So if you're just like me and you're a bit picky when it comes to pre-workouts I can guarantee you this one will not disappoint. Click the link to check them out.

Have a great day!

P.S

If you like the ad idea I would love to create a quick storyboard for this ad as well.
