

Dr. Pedro Albizu Campos

1. How was Dr. Albizu-Campos exceptional in the US, particularly with his achievements in education?
2. What was Dr. Albizu-Campos's argument about the transfer of power from Spain to US?
3. What is a nationalist?
4. What was the name of Dr. Albizu-Campos's political party?
5. Cite examples of discrimination against him in school.
6. Dr. Albizu-Campos also helped the Irish and Indian communities create centers for their own independence from Britain while in Boston. What are your thoughts on pan-struggles vs. focusing on your own community's issues? What are the pros and cons of helping other communities with similar issues vs focusing on just your own?
7. What are your thoughts on the motivations of the US for granting Puerto Rican citizenship right before drafting their men into WWI? Was it to get men to fight in the war or was it to incorporate the people into the U.S. just as Hawaii?
8. How did his experience of being drafted into WWI effect his ability to be a leader for nationalism?
9. How did his wife Laura Meneses del Carpio help with his success politically?
10. How did he change the lives of sugar workers when he went back to Puerto Rico?
11. What is sedition? Is helping workers to organizers sedition?
12. What do you think of his quote from 11:19?
13. What happened in Puerto Rico in 1950?
14. Go back to question 6, would you revise it considering info from 12:40?
15. What was the difference between what the news said of these events vs. U.S. military interventio on its citizens?
 - Extra Credit: investigate the Plutonium Files by Eileen Welsome and/or War Against all Puerto Ricans by Nelson Diaz
16. How was he treated in prison?
17. What is his legacy today?
18. Thoughts on the video?