Winters Joint Unified School District Seeks
Volunteers for the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee

Wanted: community-minded residents in the WJUSD/Winters boundaries who are interested in serving on a public committee to provide oversight for the Winters Joint Unified School District's General Obligation Bond (Measures R, D, P & W). The independent Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee (CBOC) is a group of dedicated volunteers who review and report on the proper expenditure of taxpayer money for school construction.

New Members Needed

Any local resident is invited to serve on the CBOC committee. You do not need to be a parent of a WJUSD student.

Apply Today!

If you are interested please visit CBOC Bylaws & Ethics Policy for guidelines and to fill out the CBOC Application

No school district employee or official of the school district or any vendor, contractor or consultant of the School District may serve on the committee.

All applicants must reside within Winters Joint Unified School District.

There is no compensation for the service. Meetings are usually scheduled 4 times a year. Members serve two-year minimum terms.

WJUSD is thankful for our bond funds which enable us to make improvements to our facilities and we look forward to welcoming community members to keep the public informed of our Measures R, D P & W progress.

Please visit our website for more information at Measures R, D, P & W Oversight Committee - Winters Joint Unified School District or email specific questions to facilities@wintersjusd.org and a staff member will be happy to discuss.
