

History - Course Objectives :

The three-year undergraduate History Programme is designed to familiarize students with significant developments in the History of India ,its Neighbourhood, Europe, Asia and certain other parts of the world.

The main focus is on Indian history but students would also study about European History as well as other parts of the world.

The course aims to make students challenge the idea of history as seamless, or historical knowledge as finished product that the textbooks at the school level

It seeks to expose the students to various problems and conflicts that are inherent part of the historical exercise of reconstructing the past.

The purpose is to sensitize students to Learn the knowledge about past. The idea behind this is to enable students to develop historically sensitive way of thinking with due regard to time, place, context, roles of human agencies involved and national pride.

Thus, the students are encouraged to think critically ,analyze different perspectives and actively process information about the past rather than become passive recipients of singular historical knowledge.

To inculcate a humanitarian spirit with in learners

