Short Communication

Instructions/Template for Preparing Manuscript for Journal of Biomedicine and Translational Research

(Note: Short Communications are limited to 1000 words and are not subdivided. The paper should contain an abstract, main body and 5-10 references, and contain only 1 figure or 1 table, combined. The abstract is limited to 200 words. Short Communications will appear at the end of the topical sections in the journal table of contents.)

Short Communication Title of the Manuscript (16pt, Bold)

Short Running Title: [Give here a short title of the paper, max. 6 words] ← 10pts

ABSTRACT ← Capitalized, Bold

(Abstract is written in 12 pts Times New Roman, single spacing, and justified.)

The abstract should be clear, concise and descriptive. It should include a brief content of the article. Please minimize the use of abbreviations and do not cite references in the abstract. This should state the objectives of the work, but should not contain a detailed summary of the results.

Keywords:

Maximum of 5 keywords separated by comma (,), crucial to the appropriate indexing of the papers, are to be given.

(Please Note: Body of Manuscript is written in 12 pts Times New Roman, single spacing, single columned, and justified.)

MAIN BODY ← Capitalized, Bold

State your research here. Explain the significance of your findings.

REFERENCES ← Capitalized, Bold (Vancouver Style)

All publications cited in the text should be included as a list of references. References are sequentially numbered as they appear in the text. Reference numbers are indicated in superscript. Please ensure that every reference cited in the text is also present in the reference list (and vice versa). Ensure that citations used are as contemporary as possible, including those from the current year of writing. Do not use older literature citations (more than 10 years) unless these are central to your study. References should avoid the use of secondary citations. Please use Reference Manager Applications like EndNote, Mendeley, Zotero, etc.
