Home Characteristics

- A place where someone lives
- Can be any dwelling (apartment, tent, house, trailer, etc.)
- People often have emotional attachments to it
- Made with love, sweat and tears
- Gives members a sense of belonging
- Family is often a key ingredient
- Meets many of our needs
- Abstract concept
- Home is a synonym for house

House Characteristics

- A building where someone lives
- Built with material things
- No sense of belonging
- No attachment
- May not have a family
- Meets very few of our needs
- Concrete concept
- House is not a synonym for home

Both

- Both are physical structures that have been built
- Both can have a family
- Both provide shelter