

LAAR MUSIC – COOKIE POLICY

Last Updated: 27 July 2026

This Cookie Policy explains how Matthew Beckingham, trading as Laar Music ("Laar Music", "we", "our" or "us"), uses cookies on www.laarmusic.co.uk.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website. They help the website function correctly, and can also be used to remember information or track how the site is used.

2. The Cookies We Currently Use

We currently only use cookies that are strictly necessary for our website to work — for example, cookies used by our booking and payment systems (such as Tickera/WooCommerce, Stripe, and GoCardless) to process ticket purchases and membership payments securely.

These essential cookies do not require your consent, as they're necessary for the services you've asked us to provide.

We do not currently use any analytics, advertising, or tracking cookies.

3. If This Changes

If we introduce non-essential cookies in future — for example, analytics tools such as Google Analytics, to help us understand how our website is used — we will update this Policy and ask for your consent before any such cookies are set, in line with UK law.

4. Managing Cookies

Most web browsers allow you to control cookies through their settings, including blocking or deleting them. Please note that blocking essential cookies may affect the functionality of bookings or payments on our website.

5. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time, including when the cookies we use change. The version published on our website applies.
