

Student Intake Survey

This survey is included as part of the Palomar College enrollment application.

Question 1:

Credit for Prior Learning

Do you qualify for Credit for Prior Learning? "Credit for Prior Learning" is credit that may be given to students who can demonstrate proficiency in a course through approved alternative methods like: Advanced Placement (AP) examination, International Baccalaureate (IB) examination, College Level Examination Program (CLEP), military experience, work experience and/or industry recognized credentials. For more information visit: Palomar College CPL Website

Yes

No

Previous

Next

Question 2:

Credit for Prior Learning

Have you completed any of the following Advanced Placement (AP) examination, International Baccalaureate (IB) examination, College Level Examination Program (CLEP)?

Advanced Placement

International Baccalaureate examination

College Level Examination Program

Previous

Next

Question 3:

Credit for Prior Learning

Do you believe you have the proficiency to test out of a course (example: Spanish I)?

Yes

No

Previous

Next

Question 4:

Credit for Prior Learning

Do you have any Military experience?

Yes

No

Previous

Next

Question 5:

Credit for Prior Learning

Do you have prior Work Experience? (Learning you gained through work experience that might demonstrate proficiency in a course.)

Yes

No

Previous

Next

Question 6:

Credit for Prior Learning

Do you have any industry standard certification(s)? (Industry recognized credentials /certifications that might demonstrate proficiency in a course.)

Yes

No

Previous

Next

End of survey verbiage:

Credit for Prior Learning

Thank you for completing the Credit for Prior Learning survey. Your next step is to contact the Counseling front desk at (760) 891-7511 or Veteran front desk at (760) 744-1150 x2173 to set up a "CPL counseling appointment." You can also visit the Palomar College CPL Website for more information.

Previous

Next