7D7N FRANCE+BARCELONA (2TOGO)

AVIGNON – BARCELONA – ANDORRA – LOURDES – BORDEAUX – LOIRRE VALLEY

Day2【Thursday】Paris (690 km) → Avignon

Depart from Paris, sit back, relax & enjoy the scenic coach ride while we take you to Avignon, the heart of Provence. We'll arrive in early evening. Known for its dusky purple hue of lavender fields & calming fragrance of lavender & sage, together with the sunshine & culture treasures from the neighbouring French Riviera & Mediterranean sea. It's a popular holiday destination for tourists all over the world. Avignon (City of the Popes) was the capital of the papacy in 1309-1377, The Popes' Palace (Palais des Papes) was built during this period & 7 successive popes lived there. We'll explore this important historical city on the next day. Overnight in Avignon /nearby city

Day2【Fridays】Avignon (39 km) → Gordes → Abbaye de Sénanque (39 km) → Avignon

This morning we'll explore Avignon, a well preserved medieval town surrounded by its city walls from 14th century. We'll visit The Popes' Palace. Built in 1334, when the papacy moved from Rome to Avignon. It is one of the largest & most important medieval Gothic buildings in Europe. We'll walk along the city wall & see the "broken bridge" (Pont St-Bénézet), a UNESCO world heritage site. Next we'll visit Gordes, one of the setting of the book "A Year in Provence" by Peter Mayle. Built on the foothills of Monts of Vaucluse, facing Luberon, it is one of the most beautiful hilltop villages in France. Another scenic spot in the book, Sénanque Abbey (Notre-Dame-de-Sénanque), is an icon of Provence with its unique backdrop of the stone abbey offsets the purple lavender beautifully; Overnight in Avignon / nearby city (Note: Lavender season in Provence is usually from mid June to mid August. The best time to see the lavender varies in different areas, depends on the altitude of the terrain & rainfall in the previous months. We may adjust the itinerary to show you the best possible blooming. When it's not the season, there will be no lavender field in bloom. We'd visit the Lavender Museum instead. Your understanding is appreciated)

Day3【Saturdays】Avignon (39 km) → Arles (416 km) → Barcelona

Arles, our destination city today, is famous for being home to & a source of inspiration for Dutch painter Vincent Van Gogh. It's used to be an old Roman town, you can spot Roman remains everywhere. Van Gogh lived in Arles for more than a year. He produced over 200 paintings during his stay including "Café Terrace at Night", "Bedroom in Arles", "The Langlois Bridge at Arles". Following Van Gogh's footsteps, wander around the Langlois Bridge, & the cafe at Place du Forum, from one of his nocturnal paintings, you will feel like his art is coming to life. After the visit, we will take you to Barcelona, Spain; Overnight in Barcelona / nearby city

Day4【Sundays】Barcelona

Today We'll explore Barcelona and visit Columbus Monument, La Rambla. The highlight is the visit to Sagrada Família, the symbol of Barcelona, the masterwork of Spanish Catalan architect Antoni Gaudí. Next we'll take some photos outside Camp Nou, the home stadium of FC Barcelona, and perhaps get a couple of souvenirs. Then head to Estadi Olímpic Lluís Companys. The Montjuïc Olympic Stadium is Barcelona's main facility for 1992 Olympics. Located on Montjuïc, it's a perfect spot to overlook the city; Overnight in Barcelona / nearby city (Note on visiting Sagrada Família: We strongly recommend to book entry ticket in advance at http://www.sagradafamilia.org due to entry restrictions & long queue during peak season; Please select entry between 1-1:30 pm)

Day5【Mondays】 Barcelona (199 km) → Andorra (271 km) → Lourdes

This morning we'll cross the border to Andorra. A tiny country in the heart of Pyrenees, sharing borders with France & Spain, with an area of 468 km^2 only. Its capital, Andorra la Vella, is the highest capital city in Europe; Its mountainous location makes it a popular ski destination for Europeans but less well known among non-European travellers. We'll stroll through Plaça del Poble, see the great view of the surrounding scenery. Andorra is a duty-free shopping paradise and attracts shoppers from nearby countries (also global travellers). Then make our way to Lourdes, France in the afternoon. Overnight in Lourdes / nearby city

Day6【Tuesdays】Lourdes (251 km) → Bordeaux

We'll visit Lourdes. After the Virgin Mary's apparitions in 1858, millions of travellers & pilgrims visit every year in search of miraculous healings. Lourdes' exquisite mountainous view is also a magnet for tourists. Next we'll discover Bordeaux, the world capital of wine, visit the UNESCO site Cathédrale Saint-André (Bordeaux Cathedral) & The Quinconces Square. It's the second largest square in Europe & the name comes from the way the trees are planted. Visiting a winery in Bordeaux is an agenda not to be missed! See the spectacular vineyards, learn how famous Bordeaux wines are made, and taste them. You can also buy some directly from the winery. Overnight in Bordeaux / nearby city (Note: Most of the wineries in Bordeaux are closed for visitors in August or during holidays. Winery visit would be cancelled during these periods. Your understanding is appreciated.)

Day7【Wednesdays】Bordeaux (423 km) → Chambord (180 km) → Paris

This morning we'll depart for Loire Valley, the longest river in France that extends over 1020km, known as the Garden of France. It enchants visitors with world-famous Châteaux de la Loire, a collection of castles along the two banks of the River Loire. We'll visit Château de Chambord, the largest castle in Loire Valley built as a hunting lodge for King Francois I in 1519, it's distinctive French Renaissance architecture is attributed by various architects from Italy, including Leonardo da Vinci, makes it a UNESCO site since 1981. Then we'll head back to Paris, arriving by 7pm. Overnight in Paris / nearby city
