

WORDS ARE IMPORTANT

Choose 5 vocabulary words that relate to your topic.

Use this FORM to define each word then write a sentence that correctly uses the word.

MASTERPIECE

Draw a picture or diagram of a key part or aspect of your topic. Make sure to label all the key parts.

EXPLAIN

Write a few sentences to explain your drawing.

SHARE

By creating a FLIPGRID video or email a picture with your explanation to bcarvalho@natomasunified.org

TALK SHOW

Think of an expert who represents your topic. For example if your topic is COVID 19 you might pick a doctor or scientist.

INTERVIEW

Create 5 questions you would ask your expert. Use this FORM to share your questions.

SUMMARY

Write a 1 paragraph summary for each source you found. Make sure to cite your sources.

SUMmarize It

Shorter than the text

Use your own words

Main ideas only

SHARE

Email your work or share your work to/with bcarvalho@natomasunified.org

EXAMPLES OF TOPICS

- Human impact on environment
- Energy transfer
- Ocean, weather, climate
- Atmosphere, Geosphere, Hydrosphere
- Human migration
- Ancient ways of life
- Mesopotamia, Ancient Egypt, China, Greece, India
- What were the early human ways of life and how did they change over time?

DIRECTIONS:

1. Pick a topic to research, some examples are shown to the left.
2. Review how to evaluate resources to the right.
3. Research your topic
 - a. Find 2-4 valid sources about your topic
 - b. Make sure to cite your sources
 - c. Optional: Share your resources HERE.
4. Complete 3 of the 5 activities from the top or bottom rows of this document.

NOTE: Anything that is blue and underline in a link. Just double click on it.

PICKING VALID SOURCES

Some reliable sites include:

- Encyclopedia Britannica in (Espanol)
- Fact Monster

Things to consider:

- What is the purpose of this site?
- When was the information at this site updated?
- Who created the information at this site, and what is this person's level of expertise?

FAST FACTS

List 5 interesting things you learned about your topic. Make sure to cite the source from which you learned each one.

SHARE

Make a copy of this SLIDESHOW then create a slide for each fact.

Share your slideshow with Brenda Carvalho bcarvalho@natomasunified.org

TIMELINE

Pick a component of your research for which you can create a timeline for.

For example:

- the stages of COVID 19 from exposure to recovery
- the life cycle of an animal
- important battles of a war.

Share by creating a FLIPGRID video or email a picture with your an explanation to bcarvalho@natomasunified.org

MINI BOOK

Create a 4-6 page mini book about your topic. Be creative.

SHARE

1. Create an account at Story Jumper.
2. Create your book.
3. Share your book with bcarvalho@natomasunified.org

PUBLIC Announcement

Create a pamphlet, newspaper ad or a 1 min TV commercial to promote your topic or some aspect of your topic.

SHARE

By creating a FLIPGRID video or email a picture with your an explanation to bcarvalho@natomasunified.org

