It's the Birth of Hibernia Bar

Our tale is one of perseverance and optimism that was born of an unspoken dream shared by friends. Four comrades from Arizona, California, Scotland and Ireland and Ireland, were at an intersection and faced with unemployment. The closure of the 8th Avenue bars, where we had learned our trade as a result of the sale in a town block, had left us jobless but not without hope. Actually, this issue was the spark that ignited our collective passion. We seized the chance to transform a stroke of luck into a blessing in disguise. Our search led us to the 401 West 50th Street, just from 9th Avenue. It was here that we turned our plans into real, opening a neighborhood bar called the Hibernia Bar.

More Than Just an Bar

At Hibernia Bar, we believe we're not simply running an establishment, but creating an atmosphere that is shared. We're incredibly grateful to be a part the numerous memories made by the clinking glass and roaring the roar of our bar. Be it friends coming together, proposals made on the spot, wedding celebrations and welcoming new generations or simply offering an understanding an ear - we're happy in being part of your tale.

So, whenever you're in the neighborhood or would like to watch a game with your buddies in a warm and welcoming setting, remember that Hibernia Bar serves as your perfect sports bar in the bustling metropolis of New York. We're thrilled to host your guests and make a memorable moment to our common journey.
