

(A) If a foster caregiver expresses the desire to adopt a foster child or sibling group who is and has been residing with the foster caregiver for at least six consecutive months, the public children services agency (PCSA), private child placing agency (PCPA) or private noncustodial agency (PNA) shall provide the foster caregiver with a "Application For Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group." The form is a child specific application and expires once the foster child or sibling group is adopted as evidenced by a final decree of adoption or interlocutory decree.

(B) A completed Application For Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group, with supporting documentation, serves as a shortened homestudy, replacing the, "Application for Child Placement" and the "Assessment for Child Placement (Homestudy)" required by the Administrative Code.

(C) The assessor shall complete the "Large Family Assessment" prior to the approval if the foster family has a total of five or more children residing in the home, including the foster children and any children in kinship care.

(D) The PCSA, PCPA, or PNA shall inform the foster caregiver consideration is given to the application if the placement is in the best interests of the child pursuant to the Administrative Code.

(E) If a PCSA, PCPA or PNA determines any statement in a homestudy is falsified, or any document submitted throughout the homestudy process contains a false statement, the agency shall follow the procedures outlined in the Administrative Code.

(F) The PCSA, PCPA or PNA shall not release a homestudy to any other agency or probate court if it is determined the application, homestudy, or any document submitted through the homestudy process contains a false statement knowingly made by the applicant(s).

(G) Upon receipt of Application For Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group from the foster caregiver, the PCSA, PCPA, or PNA shall review the application with the foster caregiver. An agency shall not require the foster caregiver to undergo a bureau of criminal investigation (BCI) or federal bureau of investigation (FBI) check as a condition of acceptance or approval of the application for adoption of a foster child; however, the agency shall inform the foster caregiver a criminal records check, pursuant to the Administrative Code, is required before a court issues a final decree of adoption or an interlocutory order of adoption.

(H) If the PCSA, PCPA, or PNA receives an Application For Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group. from the foster caregiver, it shall provide the foster caregiver with both of the following:

- (1) Information about the requirement for adoption training as outlined in the of the Administrative Code.
- (2) Information about the application process and eligibility requirements of Title IV-E adoption assistance, state adoption maintenance, post adoption special services subsidy, and non-recurring adoption expenses.

(I) Prior to the approval of the adoption homestudy, the PCSA, PCPA or PNA shall document in the case file the foster caregiver has fulfilled the required adoption training as outlined in the rule of the Administrative Code.

(J) In addition to the completion of the Application For Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group., the agency shall review the following information to determine the appropriateness of the foster caregiver for adoptive placement:

- (1) The homestudy and all subsequent updates.
- (2) The Large Family Assessment, if applicable.
- (3) The most recent "Medical Statement for Foster Care/Adoptive Applicant and All Household Members."
- (4) The most recent criminal record checks, including the national sex offender registry, for all adult household members.
- (5) The most recent reports of the alleged perpetrator search of child abuse and neglect information from the statewide automated child welfare information system (SACWIS) for all adult household members.
- (6) Documentation from the foster home record including but not limited to the most recent training records, fire inspection reports, safety audits, foster home exit interviews, and copies of all complaint or rule violation investigations and any applicable corrective action plans. If there are any outstanding complaints or rule noncompliance investigations, or corrective action plans that have not been fully implemented, the sending agency, if different, shall notify the agency completing the adoption approval of the nature of the investigations or corrective action plans.

(7) Case record information documented by the placement worker's visits to the foster home regarding the ability of the foster parent to meet the needs of the child(ren) to be adopted.

(K) The assessor shall review the information listed in the rule, as well as the completed Application For Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group. and arrive at one of the following recommendations:

(1) Approve the applicant(s) as a prospective adoptive parent for the child(ren) residing in the applicant's home for at least six consecutive months.

(2) Deny the application.

(L) The assessor shall provide written notification to the applicant(s) of approval or denial of the adoption homestudy within ten days after the homestudy has been approved or denied.

(1) Adoption homestudy approval notification shall include, at a minimum, the following information:

(a) Date of approval of the Application For Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group.

(b) The name of the child or children for whom the homestudy is being approved.

(2) Adoption homestudy denial shall include, at a minimum, the following information:

(a) A detailed explanation of the reasons for the denial.

(b) A description of procedures for an agency review pursuant to rule of the Administrative Code.

(M) The JFS 01692 shall only be used in consideration of the adoptive placement for the child(ren) for whom the homestudy was conducted. A separate Application For Adoption of a Foster Child or Sibling Group. or Child Characteristic Checklist, as applicable, shall be used for any other child(ren) the family is considering adopting. Once approved, the adoption homestudy shall be amended pursuant to the Administrative Code, as needed.
