

Craft Like a Pro with Mary Beth Temple at the CutterPillar 3-Day Virtual Event!

\(Insert a headshot of Mary here\)

Get ready, because Mary Beth Temple is stepping into the spotlight - and she's bringing decades of creativity, expertise, and seriously cool vibes with her! She's a sewing guru, a crochet queen, and the author of over 15 craft books (yes, 15), including the fabulous Fabulous Fat Quarter Aprons.

From working as a union tailor in NYC's entertainment scene to winning cosplay awards and designing patterns that actually make sense, Mary Beth knows how to make clothes that look good, feel great, and totally stand out. She's been there, stitched that - and now she's sharing the goods with YOU.

Learn to Make the Japanese Knot Bag - Live!

Join Mary Beth on Thursday, June 19th for a hands-on, step-by-step demo of one of her most popular makes: the Japanese Knot Bag - aka the carry-all that's about to become your new favorite thing.

It's cute. It's functional. It's surprisingly beginner-friendly. And with Mary Beth leading the way, you'll learn the best tips for clean seams, smooth curves, and fabric that really shines.

This project is perfect whether you're brand new to sewing or just want a quick, satisfying make you'll actually use.

Free Pattern Alert!

You heard that right - Mary Beth's gifting attendees a FREE download of her Japanese Knot Bag pattern.

Just head to MBTCreates.com and use the code KNOT (valid dates coming soon!).

And that's not all... she's putting together a fabric kit for the project and throwing one into our giveaway lineup. Stay tuned for details and discounts!
