

Quick Finder Privacy Policy

## Introduction

Your privacy is critically important to us. This Privacy Policy outlines the types of data that Quick Finder collects, how we use it and your rights concerning this information. By using Quick Finder, you agree to this Privacy Policy.

### What Data We Collect

Quick Finder does not collect personal information. We may collect anonymous usage statistics to improve the functionality and performance of the App.

### How Data is Collected

Data is collected automatically through the operation of the App. No personal data is collected or stored.

### How We Use Your Data

Any data collected is used strictly for enhancing App performance and troubleshooting issues.

## Data Sharing

Quick Finder does not share any collected data with third parties. If this policy should change, any third party with whom we share data will provide the same level of data protection as stated in this policy.

## Data Retention and Deletion

Any collected data is retained for a period necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this privacy policy, after which it is deleted.

## Revoking Consent and Data Deletion

Users who wish to revoke their consent and/or request deletion of their data can do so by contacting us at jacobimmugatuinc@gmail.com
