Ear defenders: Feel free to bring and wear ear defenders. We will also have some earbuds available from the box office for free.

Seat availability: We can set up a viewing area to the side of the stage on request. Please let us know if you'd like to make use of this when booking a ticket. We can also reserve seating for those who need it.

Anything else:

Lowered section of the bar for wheelchair users.

Trans Taxi fund: For trans, gender non conforming people who feel more comfortable/actively safer getting a taxi home, we will be raising money throughout the night to contribute to taxi costs. Please let us know when you purchase your ticket if you would like to access this fund on the night or email evawonderqueen@outlook.com.

Please note depending on demand and funds raised this may only cover part of your taxi fee.

You may be asked if you are happy to pool with others who access the fund.

TRANSPORT

BY CAR

There is plenty of free street parking in the roads around the venue but as New Cross is in a busy, central location but we cannot guarantee availability and do recommend that you take public transport if possible as this will likely reduce your journey time. For Blue Badge holders there are bays available on Clifton Rise, adjacent to the venue.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

We are approximately 200m from New Cross Gate tube & rail station and approximately 500m from New Cross tube & rail station.

London buses: 21, 36, 53, 136, 171, 172, 177, 225, 321, 343, 436, 453 & P13 – all stop within 100m of the venue

TAXI / DROP OFF

Taxis and other vehicles will be able to drop off and pick up customers from Clifton Rise, directly outside the venue entrance.
