USRL Organizational Information

The Ukrainian Self-Reliance League of Canada (USRL), which was founded in 1927, has always sought to create and maintain a vibrant, dynamic and active community within the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada. The pillars upon which the organization is based are culture, faith, leadership and community.

Members have the option of joining USRL or belonging to a USRL branch. In addition, two Component organizations currently exist within USRL: CYMK/Ukrainian Orthodox Youth and the Ukrainian Women's Association of Canada. Additionally, the following Affiliate organizations are members of USRL: SUS Foundation of Canada, the Ukrainian Museum of Canada and associated branches, St. John's Institute, St. Petro Mohyla Institute, St. Vladimir Institute, St. John's Fraternal Society and Alberta Provincial USRL.

Throughout the years USRL has and still today continues to preserve and promote Ukrainian Canadian heritage and culture. USRL also strives to create an environment that will foster the development of leaders within both the Ukrainian Canadian community and the Canadian community. Another key goal of USRL is to create a rich and rewarding experience for members while attracting new, younger members to keep the USRL/CYC community continually renewed and revitalized.

We are pleased that you are interested in becoming a member of USRL.
