The Foundation Day Celebration 2024

Organized by Malda College

Date: 23rd July, 2024

Time: 3 pm

Venue: Malda College

Members Attended:

On July 23, 2024, Malda College celebrated its 81st Foundation Day in a unique manner. Committed to the cause of protecting nature and the environment, saplings were distributed among students as part of the celebration. On this special occasion, a pledge was taken to plant nearly 4,000 trees across different parts of Malda district within the next two years, with the active support of students and the assistance of the college's NCC and NSS units.

The event featured a captivating performance of a song and dance centered on environmental themes. The principal of the college urged all students to commit to conserving the environment. He emphasized that the responsibility does not end with planting trees but extends to protecting and nurturing them.

As a gesture of appreciation, a memento was presented to a wandering violinist whose soulful performance added a unique dimension to the event, leaving a lasting impression on everyone present.

Orientation Programme of the Newly Admitted Students 2024

Organized by Malda College

Date: 7th August, 2024

Time: 1 pm

Venue: Malda College

Members Attended:

The Orientation Programme 2024 for newly admitted students witnessed an impressive and enthusiastic turnout, reflecting the vibrant academic culture of the institution. Spanning a duration of three hours, the event proved to be both intellectually stimulating and engaging for the participants.

The programme was graced by the esteemed presence of Professor Pabitra Chattopadhyaya, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of the University of Gour Banga, whose insightful and thought-provoking address served as a source of motivation and academic inspiration for the students.

Additionally, Mr. Vinay Kumar, Regional Director of the National Service Scheme (NSS), Kolkata, delivered an encouraging speech, urging students to actively engage in the NSS initiatives and contribute meaningfully to community development.

Overall, the programme was well-received by the students and successfully set a positive and purpose-driven tone for their academic journey ahead.

ICSSR-ERC Sponsored Two-Day International Conference on “Literature & Heritage: Interdisciplinary Perspectives”

Dates: 20-09-2024 to 21-09-2024

Time: 9 am to 5 pm

Venue: Malda College

On the 20th and 21st of September 2024, the Postgraduate Section of Malda College, West Bengal, hosted a prestigious two-day international conference titled “Literature & Heritage: Interdisciplinary Perspectives.” The event was generously supported by the ICSSR-ERC (Indian Council of Social Science Research, Eastern Regional Centre) and sought to provide a vibrant platform for scholars from diverse academic institutions to engage in profound intellectual deliberations on the intersections of literature and heritage. The conference was held at Malda College, situated on Rabindra Avenue, Malda, West Bengal. A total of 261 participants presented their scholarly papers across 14 technical sessions, facilitated through both online and offline modes. Adding a cultural dimension to the academic proceedings, the inaugural day featured a captivating cultural programme from 5:00 to 6:00 PM, where students of Malda College showcased an array of traditional dance forms intrinsic to Bengal's rich cultural tapestry. The delegates, presenters, and volunteers were provided with breakfast, lunch, and refreshments on both days, ensuring a hospitable and conducive environment for academic and cultural exchange. This event underscored Malda College's commitment to fostering interdisciplinary research and celebrating the symbiotic relationship between literature and heritage.

Day One (20 September 2024)

Inaugural Session

The inaugural session commenced at the Sanaullah Mancha (Malda College Auditorium) at 10:00 AM, following registration and refreshments. The session opened with a felicitation of distinguished guests and an inaugural song, setting a formal and culturally resonant tone. The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Manas Kr. Baidya, Principal of Malda College, followed by the formal inauguration of the conference by Professor Pabitra Chatopadhyay, the Honorable Vice-Chancellor of the University of Gour Banga, who also gave the inaugural speech. Prof. Chatopadhyay, in his address, emphasized the significance of an interdisciplinary approach in engaging with literature and heritage, reflecting the theme of the conference.

Keynote Address

The keynote address was delivered by Professor Sauren Bandyopadhyay, Vice-Chancellor of West Bengal State University. His speech, which spanned from 10:45 AM to 11:15 AM, focused on the evolving relationship between literature and heritage in the contemporary academic landscape. Prof. Bandyopadhyay underscored the importance of re-evaluating classical and modern literary traditions through interdisciplinary lenses to better appreciate their cultural and historical contributions.

Plenary Session of Day One

The plenary session featured three talks from distinguished scholars, addressing different aspects of literature and heritage:

Plenary Talk 1: Delivered by Professor Gopa Datta, former Vice-Chancellor of the University of Gour Banga and retired Professor of Bengali at Jadavpur University, the talk was titled “বাংলা সনেটের স্রষ্টা মধুসূদন দত্ত” (The Exponent of the Bengali Sonnet, Michael Madhusudan Dutta). Prof. Datta offered an in-depth exploration of Dutta's contribution to Bengali literature, particularly his innovation of the sonnet form, and contextualized his work within broader literary movements.

Plenary Talk 2: Professor Sumit Chakrabarti, from the Department of English at Presidency University, Kolkata, presented a talk titled “Bharatbarsha and Bhumandal: The Globality of Akshay Kumar Dutta as the editor of the Tattwabodhini Patrika”. Prof. Chakrabarti's presentation highlighted the global intellectual currents in 19th-century Bengal, focusing on Akshay Kumar Dutta's editorial role in shaping nationalist and globalist discourses through the Tattwabodhini Patrika.

Plenary Talk 3 : The final plenary talk of the first day of conference was delivered by Professor Maswood Akhter of the Department of English, Rajshahi University, Bangladesh. Titled “Our Engagement with Literature and Heritage: Moral, Political, and Philosophical Questions,” the talk explored the ethical, political, and philosophical dimensions of engaging with literature and heritage, urging the audience to reflect on the implications of cultural preservation and literary studies in contemporary times.

The plenary session, chaired by Professor Amit Bhattacharya, Head of the Department of English, University of Gour Banga, concluded with an interactive session that fostered a lively exchange of ideas between the speakers and the audience. The session concluded at 1 PM, followed by a lunch break.

The first day of the conference provided a viable platform for cross-disciplinary dialogues and intellectual exchanges, enriching the understanding of literature and heritage within both regional and global contexts. The participation of esteemed scholars from across India and Bangladesh reinforced the event's international scope and scholarly relevance.

On the first day, 3 offline technical sessions and 4 online technical sessions were conducted where 140 candidates presented their papers.

Offline Technical Sessions on 20 September 2024

The offline technical sessions of the seminar on the first day were held across three venues at Malda College. Each session focused on distinct yet interconnected themes, showcasing a wide spectrum of academic discourse. The sessions were conducted simultaneously from 2 PM to 5 PM.

Online Technical Sessions on 20 September 2024

On the first day, the conference's online technical sessions were successfully conducted via Google Meet. These sessions provided a platform for intellectual discourse across diverse themes, fostering engaging academic discussions. Each session adhered to the allocated time (5+1 minutes per presenter) and was managed efficiently by the respective chairs and moderators.

Two (21 September 2024)

The second day of the conference commenced with the registration and refreshment session from 9 AM to 10 AM. The attendees, comprising scholars, students, and faculty members, gathered at the Sanaullah Mancha, anticipating an intellectually stimulating day of discourse.

The plenary sessions began promptly at 10 AM with Plenary Talk-4 delivered by Daya Dissanayake, an eminent author and translator from Sri Lanka, and a recipient of both the SAARC Literary Award and the State Literary Award. His talk, titled "Heritage Through Time: My Thoughts and Words", offered a reflective analysis of how heritage is shaped through time. Drawing on his personal experiences as a writer and translator, Dissanayake highlighted the evolution of cultural and literary heritage in the South Asian context. His insightful discussion underscored the necessity of preserving and interpreting heritage in ways that resonate with contemporary audiences.

Following Dissanayake's address, Professor Anil Kumar Sarkar from the Department of History at the University of Kalyani presented Plenary Talk-5. Titled "Emerging Trend of Dalit Literature in West Bengal: Focus on 'Amar Bhubane Ami Benche Thaki' and 'Itibritye Chandal Jiban'", Professor Sarkar's presentation shed light on the growing significance of Dalit literature in West Bengal. He explored how texts such as Amar Bhubane Ami Benche Thaki and Itibritye Chandal Jiban articulate the lived experiences of marginalized communities. His analysis provided a nuanced understanding of the socio-political landscape that shapes Dalit narratives and their importance in challenging mainstream literary traditions.

The final plenary talk of the day, Plenary Talk-6, was delivered by Professor Hitendra K Patel from the Department of History at Rabindra Bharati University. His presentation, titled "Literary Heritage, Forging Connections between Regions and Political History of Modern India: Evidences From Hindi Literature", examined the intersections between literature and political history in modern India. Professor Patel illustrated how Hindi literary works have played a crucial role in forging regional connections and contributing to the broader nationalistic discourse during critical periods of India's political history. His talk emphasized the role of literature in shaping historical narratives and fostering regional identities.

An interactive session followed the plenary talks, providing a platform for the audience to engage with the speakers. Thought-provoking questions were raised, particularly concerning the interdisciplinary approach to understanding literature and heritage. The session facilitated a dynamic exchange of ideas, further enriching the discussions that had unfolded throughout the day.

On the second day, 3 offline technical sessions and 4 online technical sessions were conducted where 121 presenters presented their papers.

Offline Technical Sessions on 21 September 2024

The offline technical sessions conducted on 21 September 2024 at Malda College emerged as a significant confluence of intellectual deliberations, fostering an enriched exchange of ideas across disciplines. The meticulously organized sessions reflected an acute understanding of thematic diversity and scholarly engagement.

Online Technical Sessions Held on 21 September 2024

The online technical sessions held on 21 September 2024 were conducted across four distinct panels, each exploring interdisciplinary themes at the intersection of cultural heritage, society, literature, and politics. The sessions, organized under the auspices of Malda College, facilitated vibrant academic discussions and provided a platform for scholars to present their research.

Valedictory Session

Malda, September 21: The ICSSR-ERC sponsored Two-Day International Conference on "Literature and Heritage: Interdisciplinary Perspectives" concluded with its valedictory session held at Sanaullah Mancha, Malda College, on September 21, 2024, from 3 PM to 4:30 PM. The valedictory session featured eminent scholars from academia. Professor Amit Bhattacharya from the Department of English, University of Gour Banga, delivered the valedictory address on "Marginality of Heritage / Heritage of Marginality: A Literary Perspective." His insightful lecture shed light on the intersection of marginalized histories and literary heritage, underlining how narratives of exclusion contribute to shaping cultural consciousness. The special guest, Dr. Biswajit Das, Registrar of the University of Gour Banga, applauded the conference's interdisciplinary approach, emphasizing its significance in fostering critical discussions on heritage and literature. He commended Malda College for successfully organizing an event of this magnitude and relevance. Professor Sunima Ghosh, Head of the Department of Bengali at the University of Gour Banga, graced the session as an esteemed guest. Her address highlighted the role of regional literature in preserving and interpreting heritage through diverse linguistic and cultural lenses.

The closing ceremony marked the culmination of two days of vibrant scholarly exchanges and deliberations. Certificates of participation were distributed to delegates, resource persons, and volunteers, acknowledging their valuable contributions to the success of the conference. The convenor of the conference, Dr. Jyotirmoy Sil had summed up the entire programme.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Jagdip Kr. Chowhan (Department of History), reflecting on the significance of interdisciplinary collaboration in academia. Faculty, students, and participants expressed appreciation for the meticulous organization and enriching discussions fostered over the two days.

In conclusion, the ICSSR-ERC Sponsored Two-Day International Conference on "Literature & Heritage: Interdisciplinary Perspectives," held on 20-21 September 2024, encapsulated a rich tapestry of scholarly inquiry, reflecting the profound intersections between literary studies and heritage research. Thematic explorations spanned a diverse array of topics, ranging from the historical and cultural nuances of nation-building narratives to the intricate relationships between folk religion and tribal heritage. The conference not only facilitated an intellectually stimulating discourse but also underscored the importance of interdisciplinary approaches in understanding the complex interplay of literature and heritage. The event's success is evident in its ability to foster dynamic dialogue among scholars, with an emphasis on the evolving role of literary and cultural heritage in contemporary academic thought. The collaboration of global perspectives within this framework has contributed significantly to the advancement of research in these fields, marking a successful academic endeavor by the Postgraduate Section of Malda College.

The Inter-Departmental Model Exhibition and Competition, orchestrated by the Model Exhibition Committee, served as an intellectual platform to showcase creativity and research aptitude. The judgment process concluded with the following accolades—

Arts Section: The History Department emerged victorious demonstrating innovative historical perspectives.

Science Section: The Bachelor of Computer Applications (BCA) Department clinched the championship.

Postgraduate Section: The History Department reaffirmed its academic prowess by claiming the title. Sportsmanship was on full display during the fiercely contested Inter-Departmental Cricket Tournament, and Department of Mathematics emerged as Champion. Department of Sanskrit was the Runners-Up this time.

A friendly cricket match between the Teaching Staff and Non-Teaching Staff added a convivial touch to the event. The Teaching Staff emerged as champions, reflecting teamwork and mutual respect. The coveted title of Best NSS Volunteer was awarded to Ms. Tanima Chowdhury for her exemplary service and commitment to societal welfare. Prizes were given to the successful students for the following—Reels Making Competition, Debate, Quiz, Essay Writing Competition, Dancing, Singing, Impromptu Acting, Debate. The Prize Distribution Ceremony was a fitting conclusion to the week-long celebrations, applauding the manifold achievements of the students and participants.

7th Regional Science Congress

Dates: 7th-8th January 2025

Time: 9 am to 5 pm

Venue: Malda College

Malda College is privileged to host the West Bengal Regional Science and Technology Congress (7RSTC) 2024–25 for Region-2, encompassing the districts of Uttar Dinajpur, Dakshin Dinajpur, Malda, and Murshidabad. Scheduled for January 7–8, 2025, this prestigious event is jointly organized by Malda College, Malda, and the Department of Science and Technology and Biotechnology (DSTBT), Government of West Bengal.

This academic congregation has attracted significant participation, with 237 researchers and nearly 80 co-authors registered to present their research findings across twelve disciplinary domains.

The Congress commenced with a vibrant Inaugural Ceremony. Following the rendition of the State Song by faculty members of Malda College, led by Dr. Manas Kumar Baidya, the Principal of Malda College extended a warm welcome to the dignitaries. The formal inauguration was marked by the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by Professor Pabitra Chattopadhyay, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, University of Gour Banga, followed by a symbolic act of watering a plant by all distinguished guests on stage.

The event was graced by several eminent personalities, including Smt. Sabina Yasmin, Hon'ble Minister of State, North Bengal Development Department; Professor Souren Bandyopadhyay, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, West Bengal State University and President of the Governing Body of Malda College (who also chaired the Inaugural Ceremony); Mr. Nitin Singhania, Hon'ble District Magistrate, Malda; Mr. Krishnendu Narayan Chowdhury, Chairman, English Bazar Municipality; and Mr. Saikat Das, Joint Secretary, DSTBT. The session was conducted by Dr. Uttam Sarkar, Nodal Officer and Organizing Secretary, who also delivered the vote of thanks.

The twelve thematic disciplines represented in the Congress include:

- (i) Physical Sciences,
- (ii) Chemical Sciences,
- (iii) Statistics, Mathematical Sciences, IT and its Applications,
- (iv) Engineering and Technological Sciences including Emerging Technologies,
- (v) Earth Sciences including Geoinformatics and Hydrogeology,
- (vi) Botany,
- (vii) Zoology,
- (viii) Biotechnology,
- (ix) Physiology and Medical Sciences including Forensic Science,
- (x) Environmental Sciences with a focus on Climate Change,
- (xi) Agriculture, Horticulture, Fisheries, and Veterinary Sciences, and
- (xii) Focal Theme: Applications of Emerging Technologies including AI/ML in Sustainable Development.

The Congress features presentations of pioneering research contributions across these disciplines, providing ample opportunities for scholarly dialogue and interdisciplinary engagement. Highlights of the event include keynote addresses, memorial lectures, and invited talks delivered by eminent scholars: Prof. Anupam Basu (Keynote on the Focal Theme), Prof. Tapas Kumar Kundu (Acharya J.C. Bose Memorial Lecture), Prof. Arup Kumar Raychaudhuri (Sir C.V. Raman Memorial Lecture), and Prof. Partha Pratim Majumder (Prof. P.C. Mahalanobis Memorial Lecture).

Twelve technical sessions form the academic backbone of the Congress. Three outstanding presentations from each disciplinary category—evaluated by a panel of 24 distinguished judges—will receive cash awards, Certificates of Excellence, and the opportunity to present at the 32nd West Bengal State Science and Technology Congress to be held in Kolkata on February 28 and March 1, 2025.

In addition to the registered paper presenters, the Congress saw enthusiastic participation from postgraduate students, research scholars, faculty members from various colleges and universities, distinguished school science teachers of Malda, and science students of Malda College. The total number of attendees is estimated to be around 1,000.

Basanta Utsav Celebration

Dates: 14th March 2025

Time: 11am-1 pm

Venue: Malda College

Malda College joyfully celebrated Basanta Utsav on 14th March 2025, from 11 am within the college premises. The programme was a vibrant tribute to the spirit of spring, embodying cultural richness and youthful enthusiasm. The event was an initiative of the Students' Union of Malda College, showcasing their commitment to upholding cultural traditions and fostering community engagement on campus. The celebration was formally inaugurated by Dr. Manas Kumar Baidya, Principal of Malda College, whose inspiring address emphasized the significance of cultural festivals in enriching the educational experience and promoting harmony. The programme featured a series of cultural performances including songs, dances, and recitations themed around spring and the legacy of Basanta Utsav as envisioned by Rabindranath Tagore. The colourful attire of participants and the use of natural colours added to the festive ambience, reflecting the joy and renewal associated with the season.

On the 19th of March, 2025, at precisely 11 am, a significant institutional milestone was marked at Malda College with the formal signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between Malda College and St. John Ambulance Service. This collaborative venture underscores Malda College's steadfast commitment to promote an environment conducive not only to academic excellence but also to the holistic well-being of its community. The MoU delineates a commendable provision of free ambulance services by St. John Ambulance to both students and staff members of Malda College, thereby ensuring prompt medical response and transportation in times of health emergencies.

World Poetry Day Celebration

Organized by the Department of Bengali, Malda College

The poster features three logos at the top: Malda College (ESTD. 1944), National Service Scheme (NSS), and a stylized 'মা' (Ma) logo. The main text in Bengali reads 'শুধু কবিতার জন্য...' (Only for poetry...) and 'বিশ্ব কবিতা দিবস উদ্‌যাপন' (World Poetry Day Celebration). Below this is an illustration of a hand holding a quill pen. The text continues with 'আয়োজক:' (Organized by:), 'বাংলা বিভাগ মালদা কলেজ' (Bengali Department, Malda College), 'সহযোগিতায়—' (With the help of—), 'মালদা কলেজ সাহিত্য সংঘ, জাতীয় সেবা প্রকল্প, মালদা কলেজ' (Malda College Literary Association, National Service Scheme, Malda College), 'স্বরচিত কবিতা পাঠে—' (Recitation of original poems—), 'মালদা কলেজের শিক্ষার্থীরা' (Students of Malda College). At the bottom, it states 'তারিখ: ২১/০৩/২০২৫' (Date: 21/03/2025), 'সময়: দুপুর ২-টো' (Time: 2 PM), and 'স্থান: ১০৩ নং কক্ষ' (Venue: Room 103).

In a vibrant celebration of poetic expression and the enduring significance of the lyric imagination, the Department of Bengali, Malda College, in collaboration with the Malda College Literary Association and the National Service Scheme (NSS), organised a commemorative event on the occasion of World Poetry Day, observed annually on the 21st of March under the auspices of UNESCO. The event, held in Room No. 103 at 2:00 PM, served as a dynamic confluence of youthful creativity, cultural introspection, and literary innovation. The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from both undergraduate and postgraduate students who showcased their poetic compositions. These original poems—ranging in theme from the deeply personal to the politically resonant—demonstrated a remarkable breadth of aesthetic sensibility and linguistic dexterity. Each recitation unfolded as an act of self-articulation, enabling the students to negotiate, through poetic form, complex experiences of identity, temporality, and socio-cultural belonging.

in association with

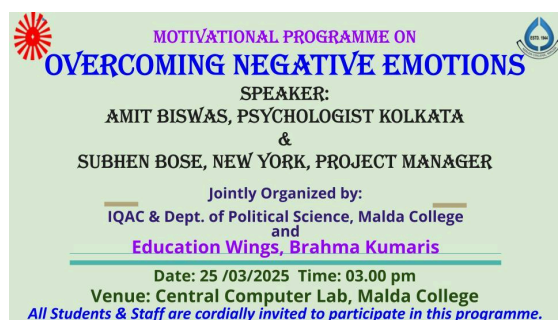

Education Wings, Brahma Kumaris

Date: 25th March, 2025

Time: 3 pm

Venue: Central Computer Lab, Malda College

Members Attended:

A motivational programme titled “Overcoming Negative Emotions” was conducted on the 25th of March, 2025, under the auspices of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Malda College, in academic collaboration with the Education Wings of the Brahma Kumaris. The session commenced at 3:00 PM and was held in the Central Computer Laboratory of Malda College, with both national and international participation. The programme was formally inaugurated with a welcome address delivered by Dr. Manas Kr. Baidya, the Principal of Malda College, who articulated the urgent need to cultivate psychological resilience and emotional intelligence within academic spaces, particularly in the wake of rising mental health concerns among students and educators alike. The keynote speakers—Mr. Amit Biswas, a practising psychologist based in Kolkata, and Mr. Subhen Bose, an international project manager currently based in New York—joined the session via online platform, thereby facilitating a transnational exchange of perspectives. Mr. Biswas focused on the neuro-psychological underpinnings of emotions such as anxiety, anger, and despair, linking these to behavioural patterns and social conditioning. Mr. Bose, addressed the psychosocial implications of emotional turbulence in both personal and professional domains, and advocated for an ethics of inner harmony grounded in the teachings of Rajyoga meditation. The session, attended by faculty, students, and administrative staff, was not only intellectually enriching but also profoundly reflective, promoting an environment of contemplative engagement. The vote of thanks was given by Gandhari Saha, Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science, Malda College, who expressed deep gratitude to the speakers for their insightful deliberations and to the organising bodies for facilitating a dialogue of such critical relevance.

7 Day Annual Special Camp

Organized by NSS, Malda College

Date: 24-30 March, 2025

Time: 11am-4 pm, daily

Venue: Narioli Village

Members Attended:

The Annual Special Camp of the NSS Unit, Malda College, was conducted from 24th to 30th March, 2025, at the institution's adopted village, Narioli, situated within the administrative jurisdiction of Old Malda CD Block, Malda District. With the exception of the inaugural day (March 24), which was observed on campus, all subsequent activities were held within the adopted village, thereby reinforcing the ethos of community engagement and grassroots participation.

On March 25, as part of a heritage awareness initiative, the volunteers undertook an educational excursion to several historically significant sites in and around the ancient city of Gour, Malda. A substantial number of volunteers actively participated in the camp, which featured a diverse array of programmes aimed at the holistic development of village children, the local community, and the volunteers themselves. In alignment with the NSS's core values of sustainability, self-reliance, and civic responsibility, the volunteers took personal responsibility for preparing their own meals each day and brought utensils from home, thereby consciously minimizing waste and promoting ecological mindfulness.

On 21st April, 2025, a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed between Malda College and the voluntary organisation Barie Dao Tomar Haath ("Extend Your Hand"). The MoU embodies a vision of participatory development, wherein academic institution and civil society organisations converge to address societal concerns. This collaboration also envisions the integration of experiential pedagogy into the academic fabric of the college, thereby offering students transformative opportunities to critically engage with real-world issues such as gender equity, health awareness, environmental sustainability, and education for the underprivileged. Through this MoU, both entities affirm their collective aspiration to engender a more empathetic, responsive, and socially conscious generation of learners and leaders.

Sit O Asit: Publication of Book by Prof. Asit Dutta (Retired)

Date: 21st April, 2025

Time: 1 am

Venue: Room no. 103

Members Attended: 57

On 21st April, 2025, Malda College hosted the formal publication event of Sit o Asit, the autobiography of Professor Asit Dutta, a revered former faculty member of the Department of Commerce, Malda College, who has penned down his life and academic journey at the age of 94. Organized by the Alumni Association, the event was graced by Professor Dutta himself, alongside a distinguished gathering of alumni, many of whom are now prominent figures in various professional spheres.

Eminent dignitaries such as Mr. Krishnendu Narayan Choudhury, Hon'ble Chairman of Englishbazar Municipality, and Mrs. Sumla Agarwal, Deputy Chairperson and Governing Body member, were present, along with Professor Satyaranjan Choudhury and key members of the Alumni Association of Malda College. The presence of several octogenarian alumni added a deeply emotional resonance to the occasion. In a symbolic tribute, Principal Professor Manas Kumar Baidya felicitated Professor Dutta with 94 roses, celebrating his enduring legacy. The autobiography captures the evolution of the educational landscape between 1970 and 1996, offering critical insights into institutional practices, pedagogical philosophies, and the socio-cultural ethos of the time. Principal Baidya and Alumni Secretary Mr. Pradip Bagchi highlighted the crucial role of alumni in future academic initiatives. The event reaffirmed the college's commitment to heritage, community engagement, and forward-looking academic growth through collaborative efforts.

Women's Journey in India – Vedic to Contemporary: Across Philosophical Tradition

Organised by the Department of English in association with the IKS

Date: 22nd April, 2025

Time: 1 pm

Venue: Malda College Auditorium

Members Attended: 590

A programme on Gender Sensitisation was convened on the 22nd of April, 2025, at 1:00 PM in the Malda College Auditorium (Durgakinkar Sadan). This academically and socially significant event was collaboratively organised by the Department of English, the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC), and the Indian Knowledge System (IKS) Cell, in association with the NSS Unit of Malda College.

The programme was inaugurated by the act of watering plants, which is emblematic of growth, care, and ecological consciousness. This was followed by a formal welcome address delivered by Dr. Manas Kr. Baidya, the esteemed Principal of Malda College.

The highlight of the programme was a aesthetically and intellectually resonant performance titled Mahabharater Meye ("Women of Mahabharata"), staged by Phoenixiana, a renowned Malda-based theatre troupe. The production was conceived and directed by Dr. Anuradha Kunda, Associate Professor of English, Malda College. This performance critically interrogated and artistically reimaged the positionalities and voices of female figures in the epic Mahabharata, offering a poignant reflection on the gender dynamics inherent in society. This was followed by an erudite and thought-provoking lecture by Dr. Indrani Basu, IQAC Coordinator and NSS Programme Officer of Berhampur College, Murshidabad. Her address foregrounded the pressing necessity of gender sensitisation among students, advocating for an inclusive pedagogical ethos and a transformative educational environment.

Inauguration of “Acharya Jagadish Chandra Bose Botanical Museum”

Organised by the Department of Botany

Date: 8 May, 2025

Time: 12 pm

Venue: Department of Botany, Malda College

Members Attended: 62

In a significant academic and commemorative endeavour, the Department of Botany, Malda College, solemnised the inauguration of the “Acharya Jagadish Chandra Bose Botanical Museum” on 8 May 2025 at 12 noon. The programme was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. Manas Kr Baidya, Principal of Malda College, who formally inaugurated the museum. In his inaugural address, Dr. Baidya eloquently reflected on the legacy of Acharya Jagadish Chandra Bose, whose pioneering contributions to plant physiology and biophysics continue to inspire interdisciplinary scientific inquiry. The newly established Botanical Museum seeks to integrate pedagogical functionality with archival reverence. It houses an eclectic range of preserved plant specimens, taxonomic charts, herbarium samples, and ethnobotanical artefacts—curated not merely for display but to stimulate critical ecological consciousness among students and researchers.

A Cultural Programme on “Indian Knowledge System”

Organised by the Department of History in collaboration with NSS, IKS, and IQAC

Date: 8 May, 2025

Time: 1-3 pm

Venue: Seminar Gallery, Malda College

Members Attended: 115

To celebrate the 164th birth anniversary of the bard Rabindranath Tagore, a captivating cultural programme themed on the “Indian Knowledge System” was organized on 8th May 2025 at 1:00 p.m. in the Seminar Gallery of Malda College. Conceptualised as a reverential homage to Kabi Guru, the event was arranged by the Department of History in collaboration with the Indian Knowledge System (IKS) Cell, the National Service Scheme (NSS), and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Malda College. The ceremonial proceedings commenced with the floral offering and garlanding of Tagore’s portrait, symbolically evoking his enduring spiritual and cultural presence.

The event formally began with a welcome address by Dr. Poulami Bhawal, a distinguished faculty member of the Department of History, whose words contextualised the programme within the broader legacy of Tagore's intellectual and aesthetic contributions. Dr. Narayan Ch. Shaw, Coordinator of the IQAC, extended his cordial felicitations, underscoring the significance of such academic-cultural engagements in sustaining Tagore's vision in contemporary times.

The atmosphere was rendered profoundly evocative by a series of student performances—songs, dance, and recitations—that aesthetically revived the ethos of Rabindra Sangeet and the literary tradition of the Rabindra Gharana. A scholarly address was delivered by Dr. Anuradha Kunda, Associate Professor of English and a celebrated thespian of Malda, who eloquently illuminated the perennial relevance of Tagore's philosophical worldview. Dr. Kunda incisively delineated how Tagore's humanism and cultural ideals continue to shape and define the contours of Bengali identity and intellectual life.

As a tribute to the polymath's dramatic oeuvre, the students staged Achalayatan, a play written, directed, and enacted solely by them. This performative gesture not only reflected their artistic commitment but also resonated with Tagore's enduring emphasis on self-expression, autonomy, and educational reform.

The programme concluded with a valedictory address by Dr. Manas Kr. Baidya, Principal of Malda College, whose closing remarks eloquently tied together the day's commemorations with a reaffirmation of the institution's dedication to fostering cultural and intellectual heritage.

রামায়ণের বিশাল্যকরণীর উৎপাদন মালদহ কলেজের ভেষজ উদ্যানে

সংবাদদাতা, মালদহ : রবিশের বিরুদ্ধে যুদ্ধ করার সময় তাঁর ছেলে ইন্দ্রজিৎ বা মেঘনাদের অস্ত্রে খায়ের হয়ে সংজ্ঞাহীন হয়ে পড়েছিলেন লক্ষ্মণ। বৈদ্যরাজ সুশেখর পরামর্শে মহাবীর হনুমান যে ভেষজ উদ্ভিদ এনে লক্ষ্মণের প্রাণরক্ষা করেছিলেন, সেই বিশাল্যকরণীর এবার বাণিজ্যিকভাবে উৎপাদন শুরু করল মালদহ কলেজ। বৃথকার চিকিৎসার স্বার্থে ব্যবহৃত বিভিন্ন ভেষজের বাগান উদ্বোধন হল মালদহ কলেজ প্রাঙ্গণে। বিভিন্ন উদ্ভিদের মধ্যে এই বাগানে বিপুল পরিমাণে চাষ করা হবে বিশাল্যকরণীর যা 'আয়্যাপানা' নামেও পরিচিত। মালদহ কলেজের উদ্ভিদবিদ্যা বিভাগের তত্ত্বাবধানে গড়ে ওঠা এই ভেষজ বাগানে উৎপাদিত বিশাল্যকরণী বা একটি সংস্থার মাধ্যমে রপ্তানির পরিকল্পনা রয়েছে বলে কলেজ সূত্রে জানা গিয়েছে।

কলেজ প্রাঙ্গণে প্রায় এক বিঘা জমিতে গড়ে তোলা হয়েছে এই উদ্যান। এদিন এই উদ্যানে বিশাল্যকরণী উৎপাদন বাণিজ্য উদ্বোধন করেন কলেজের অধ্যক্ষ মানস কৈবর্ত। তিনি বলেন, জেলার হবিবপুর ব্লকের ইকো ফ্রেন্ডলি অ্যাগ্রো ডেভেলপমেন্ট সোসাইটির সঙ্গে কলেজ কর্তৃপক্ষের একটি 'মউ' স্বাক্ষরিত হয়েছে। কলেজের ভেষজ বাগানে উৎপাদিত বিশাল্যকরণী রপ্তানির ক্ষেত্রে সাহায্য করবেন তারা।

মালদহ কলেজের উদ্ভিদবিদ্যা বিভাগের প্রধান পীযুষ সাহা বলেন, তিলে তিলে এই ভেষজ বাগান গড়ে তোলা হয়েছে। প্রতিটি গাছের গায়ে থাকছে কিউআর কোড। ওই কোড স্ক্যান করলেই ভেষজ উদ্ভিদগুলি সজোস্ত যাবতীয় তথ্য ও ছবি পাওয়া যাবে। তাঁর কথায়, এখানে সর্পগন্ধা, গোলমরিচ, যুতকুমারী, নাগলিঙ্গম (ক্যানন বলা), গুলঞ্চ, কাসাভা সহ একাধিক গাছ রয়েছে। রয়েছে ইন্দুসলিন গাছও। যাদের

মধুমেহ বা ব্লাড সুগার রয়েছে তাঁদের রক্তে শর্করার পরিমাণ নিয়ন্ত্রণে রাখতে এই ইন্দুসলিন গাছের পাতা অত্যন্ত কার্যকরী ভূমিকা নেয়।

আয়্যাপানা বা বিশাল্যকরণীর গুণ ব্যাখ্যা করে পীযুষ বলেন, এই গাছটি রক্তপাত রোধক, রক্ত উৎপাদক, রক্ত শোধক এবং রিমিয়ে পড়া মাছুতন্ত্রকে চালা করতে অনবদ্য

ভূমিকা নেয়। রক্ত আমাশয়, অর্শ, পুরানো ক্ষত নিরাময়েও এই গাছের ভূমিকা ভেষজ বিজ্ঞানে গুরুত্বের সঙ্গে উল্লিখিত রয়েছে। কানন বলেন ফুল থেকে সুগন্ধী, বীজ থেকে পেটে বাথার গুণ্ড ইত্যাদি তৈরি হয়। কলেজ কর্তৃপক্ষ জানিয়েছে, এদিন ভেষজ উদ্যানে প্রায় ৮ হাজার আয়্যাপানা চারা লাগানো হয়েছে। আমেরিকা, ইকোড ও অস্ট্রেলিয়ায় এই গাছের বিপুল চাহিদা রয়েছে। হবিবপুরের ওই সংস্থার মাধ্যমে গাছ রপ্তানিও করা হবে। • মালদহ কলেজ ভেষজ উদ্যানের উদ্বোধন ও মউ স্বাক্ষর।-নিজস্ব চিত্র

Inauguration 28 May, 2025

Time: 12 pm

Members Attended:

Convener: Dr. Somnath Roy

Under the auspices of the Department of Botany and with the earnest cooperation of Professor Dr. Somnath Ray, a hands-on initiative aimed at advocating self-reliance among students was formally resumed today, Wednesday, 28 May 2025, at Malda College. As part of this endeavour, second and fourth semester students have been actively engaged in the practical cultivation of mushrooms within the college premises. It is envisioned that, in the near future, Malda College will extend this initiative by marketing the cultivated mushrooms commercially.

Observance of International Biodiversity Day-2025

National Seminar on 'Biodiversity and Sustainability: Challenges, Solution and Future Perspectives'

Organised by Malda College
Inauguration 29-30 May, 2025
Time: 12 pm-3 pm
Members Attended:

Malda College solemnly observed the International Biodiversity Day 2025 through the successful organisation of a National Seminar on “Biodiversity and Sustainability: Challenges, Solutions and Future Perspectives”, held on 29–30 May 2025 from 12 p.m. to 3 p.m. The academic conclave aimed to interrogate the interdependent dynamics of biodiversity conservation and sustainable development in the face of escalating ecological crises.

The event was graced by Prof. Souren Bandopadhyay, Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor of West Bengal State University and President of the Governing Body, Malda College, as Chief Patron, and Dr. Manas Kumar Baidya, Principal, Malda College, as Patron. The seminar was jointly coordinated by Dr. Mosfudar Rahaman (Department of Geography) and Dr. Md. Masidur Alam (Department of Botany), with scholarly guidance from Dr. Somnath Roy and

Dr. Nanigopal Kapasia, the respective Convenors from the Departments of Botany and Geography. The event served as a vibrant platform for interdisciplinary dialogue and critical reflection on the future of environmental stewardship.

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR
ON

EMERGING TRENDS IN BIOLOGICAL AND BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH

HIGHLIGHTS

- ✓ Dr. Sarkar is involved in developing organic fluorophores & probes for bioimaging applications. He will deliver a special lecture on "Molecular aspects of disease diagnosis".
- ✓ Dr. Das investigating the role of epigenetic regulators (enhancers/super-enhancers and lncRNAs) by utilizing state-of-the-art multi-omic approaches including single-cell transcriptomic and epigenomic analyses in VSMC and macrophage function.
- ✓ Dr. Yasmin's current work involves in understanding the role of complement proteins in modulating the innate immune response in normal and adverse pregnancies.
- ✓ Dr. Saini is interested in investigating the role of parasite, host and vector determinants for atypical leishmaniasis. Currently he is focus on deciphering the dermatrop/viscerotropy mechanism of Leishmania donovani.

INSIGHTS

- ✓ Tutorial Lecture: General talk to introduce a new field to students.
- ✓ Research Career Highlight: Speakers will talk about their journey in research and briefly covers on many scientific inventions.
- ✓ Science Story: The speakers will talk about one particular topic. From observation to the publication process.
- ✓ Future Aspects: Speakers will also deliver the need for Biological and Biomedical Research in current scenario from disease identification to probable combat approaches.
