

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL FORM

The Wyoming Association of Professional Archaeologists (WAPA) is a nonprofit, voluntary organization that exists for the purpose of maintaining and promoting the goals of professional archaeology in the State of Wyoming.

WAPA membership is annual and payment is due to the WAPA Treasurer by April 1st. Membership requirements and additional information can be found under Sections IV and VI in the WAPA Bylaws. Specific inquiries can be directed to the WAPA Vice President/Chair of the Membership and Ethics Committee, via email (please refer to the Officers drop-down menu on the WAPA website for current email) or post:

Wyoming Association of Professional Archaeologists
Dept. 3431, 1000 East University Ave.
Laramie, WY 82071

WAPA Membership Pledge: All applicants certify that they agree to and will abide by the WAPA Code of Conduct and Standards of Research Performance as defined in Sections XIV and XV of the WAPA Bylaws.

Membership Levels:

- Individual Voting Member
- Family Voting Member
- Student Member
- Honorary Member
- Institutional Member
- Lifetime Voting Member

For descriptions of each membership level, please review Section IV of the WAPA Bylaws. Honorary Memberships and Institutional Memberships are typically gifted by the Association while the other four levels require a membership application.

The Membership Renewal Form is for renewing WAPA members (those renewing within three years of membership lapse) in good standing. Members are considered in “good standing” if they are not under membership suspension as a consequence of disciplinary proceedings for violation of the WAPA Code of Conduct and Standards of Research Performance as defined in Sections XIV and XV of the WAPA Bylaws.

Membership Renewal Process:

- For WAPA’s records, please fill out the Membership Renewal Form below and submit to the WAPA Vice President/Chair of the Membership and Ethics Committee via email or post.
- Upon form submission, please pay annual dues via PayPal or by check sent to WAPA Treasurer at the above address.
