Burglar Bill

There are many infamous robbers and burglars who steal from innocent people. Burglar Bill is one of them. Read on to find out more.

What does Burglar Bill look like?

Before Burglar Bill goes out, he puts on his special burglar clothes. Typically, this would be a blue and white striped jumper, navy trousers and a pair of battered shoes. Also he never goes out without his black mask.

What does he steal?

Every Thursday, Burglar Bill carries his large, cloth sack and fills it full of stolen goods. Sometimes he is hungry so he steals food from places such as the supermarket or the local bakery. On other occasions he likes to steal the latest electronic gadget, for example an Ipad or an Xbox.

What does he do during the day?

Burglar Bill mainly sleeps so that he is full of energy during the night. Occasionally he plays his stolen piano badly and watches football on his stolen widescreen television. Furthermore, he loves to listen to music on his stolen digital radio.

Did you know?

Burglar Bill's birthday is in August and he is married to Betty!

Now you know lots about Burglar Bill. To find out about other burglars and robbers, go to www.badrobbers.co.uk