The Australian Greens are very excited to welcome leaders from the Asia-Pacific Greens Federation (APGF) and the Global Greens (GG). With special guests:

Ade Zuchri, Green Union Indonesia (Sarekat Hija Indonesia), Co-Convenor of the APGF. Ade will speak on Indonesia, her party and their work on training for local government elections, and the APGF. You may have met Ade in the 2016 IDC study tour in NSW parliament!

Richard Masere, PNG Greens MP, chair of PNG Political Affairs Committee. Richard was re-elected to parliament at their July national election. Deforestation and land/resource ownership are key issues with local government elections coming up in March 2023.

Chulseong Lee, APGF Councillor for the Korean Greens will speak about the upcoming Global Greens Congress (GGC) in June 2023 - the GGC is anticipating 700-800 attendees to the Congress just outside of Seoul. You can also find out more on Sunday!

Robinah Nanyunjah, Ugandan Green Party, on the organising Committee for GGC. Robinah will speak on the African Federation and her own party which has two MPs in the National Ugandan Parliament.

What does Grassroots actually mean and what can we do to encourage more, not less participation in democratic processes both within and external to the Greens? Join Senator Mehreen Faruqi, Tim Hollo, Becc Galdies and Councillor Jonathan Sriranganathan for a chat and to look at some ways we can make the party even better.
