

Assessing suspended sediment source contributions to river pollution using fingerprinting: potential and future perspectives¹

Here is the text of the abstract.

There is no line between paragraphs. You may use this template to format your own text.

Table – Title

Further text of the abstract. It is essential to include a reference to a figure or table in the text, e.g. (fig., tab.)

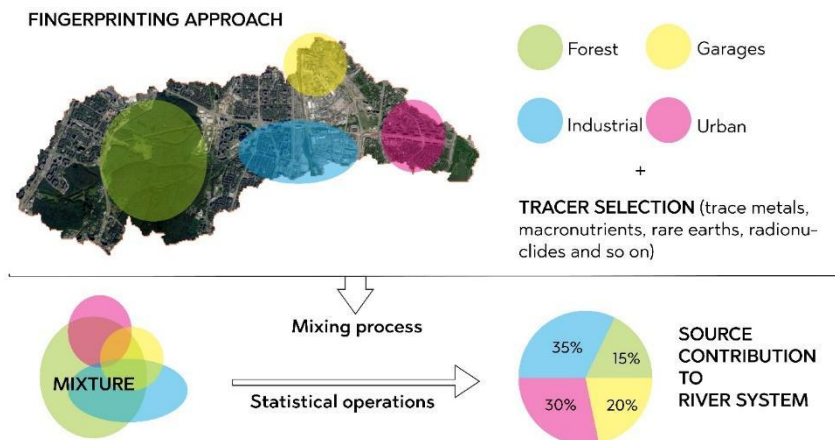

Figure – Title

The text should be approximately 250 words.

¹ Reference to the funding source (if applicable)