

Free events of interest to grad students and postdocs—Fall 2025

You can find detailed information and registration for these and other Schreyer Institute programs at:
<https://www.schreyerinstitute.psu.edu/events>

If you'd like to schedule a customized event for your department or grad student/postdoc group, or for more information about any of these programs, email SITE@psu.edu.

- August 20: TA 101: Survive and Thrive—on Zoom from 2:00-3:15pm. Registration.
- August 28: How to Plan a Class Session—on Zoom from 10:35-11:50am. Registration. (This workshop is also offered on September 3. Pick whichever date suits your schedule.)
- September 3: How to Plan a Class Session—on Zoom from 10:10-11:25am. Registration. (This workshop is also offered on August 28. Pick whichever date suits your schedule.)
- September 4: Making Sure Disruptions Don't Derail Students' Learning—on Zoom from 10:35-11:50am. Registration. (This workshop is also offered on September 9. Pick whichever date suits your schedule.)
- September 9: Making Sure Disruptions Don't Derail Students' Learning—on Zoom from 10:35-11:50am. Registration. (This workshop is also offered on September 4. Pick whichever date suits your schedule.)
- September 10: An Introduction to Active Learning—on Zoom from 10:10-11:25am. Registration.
- September 12: How CIRTl Can Benefit Grad Students and Postdocs—on Zoom from noon to 12:30pm. Registration.
- September 17: AI Decision Points: Especially for Grad Students and Postdocs Who Teach—on Zoom from 10:10-11:25am. Registration.
- September 23: Feeling Confident and Comfortable in a U.S. Classroom (Especially for International TAs)—on Zoom from 10:35-11:50am. Registration.
- September 23: How Culturally Responsive Teaching Can Benefit Your Students—on Zoom from 1:20-2:35pm. Registration.
- September 24: Identities We Inspire in Our Students—on Zoom from 10:10-11:25am. Registration.
- September 25: Getting Started with Teaching and Learning Scholarship—on Zoom from 10:35-11:50am. Registration.
- September 26: How CIRTl Can Benefit Grad Students and Postdocs—on Zoom from noon to 12:30pm. Registration.
- October 7: Assessing Student Learning—on Zoom from 10:35-11:50am. Registration.
- October 8: Moving Beyond the Banking Model in Our Teaching—on Zoom from 10:10-11:25am. Registration.
- October 13: How CIRTl Can Benefit Grad Students and Postdocs—on Zoom from noon to 12:30pm. Registration.
- October 14: Integrating Inquiry into Your Teaching Practice—on Zoom from 12:10-1:20pm. Registration.

Also consider these short courses: Course in College Teaching (focused on best practices in college teaching; apply by September 1); the Instructional Foundations Series (register by September 2); and Ethical Pedagogy (focused on inclusive and ethical teaching; application deadline: TBA).

If you'd like to chat about topics related to your TAing/teaching or professional development around teaching, set up a free, confidential conversation by emailing SITE@psu.edu. We also have asynchronous resources on Canvas: <https://psu.instructure.com/courses/2085646>

Penn State is in the CIRTl Network. You can pursue the Penn State CIRTl Teaching Certificate for free.