FAQs

Where Is The Best Place To Buy A Classic Car?

Easy one. Of course, Classic Car Deals is the best place to buy a classic car truck or SUV. Our team and leadership are obsessed with classics. We love restoring them. We love showing them off. Our love of all things classic translates to how you the customer, interact with our team.

What Is The Largest Classic Car Dealership In The US?

While Classic Car Deals is not the largest direct classic car dealer in the US, we are one of the fastest growing. Our inventory is not limited to our actual lot which is located in Cadillac MI. Our inventory is the entirety of all the vehicles for sale on our website. So based on that, Classic Car Deals is one of the largest dealers in the US for classic and vintage vehicles.

How To Safely Buy A Classic Car?

At Classic Car Deals, safety is our top priority. To mitigate against scams, we separate direct communication with the buyer and seller. In the rare circumstance a conversation is needed, we will set up a three way call to ensure everyone's privacy and security.

Once you get all your questions answered and you tell us you want to buy, we will require a good-faith deposit to remove the car off the market. This deposit will hold the vehicle for 7 days until you get all your funds in order. Once you pay the balance in full, we will mail you the paperwork and set up shipping for you. This will all be done in most cases within 24 hours of Final Payment.

Where To Find Classic Cars To Flip?

Listen, we get it. Having a classic vehicle is super fun. So is making money. Making money in the classic car business is great since you're doing what you love to do. Not all sellers care about top dollar, sometimes they just want to get rid of the vehicle for an estate sale or because they found another project. Keep an eye on our inventory as price and availability can fluctuate. You may be able to find a great classic car or truck to flip.
