

Transformation 1: White mouse

Found by interacting with the mouse in your office

A few papers are scattered around your office. Your PC is still on, with a few pictures displaying on the desktop. You hear the little squeaks of your little test subject in his cage, possibly a bit hungry. He wanders around, staring at you curiously with his little eyes. You do have food, so you could easily take care of him before you go, maybe even try taking him with you.

You open the cage, putting your hand in with a bit of food to feed the mouse, he sniffs it, but instead of eating it he crawls up your arm onto your shoulder. You turn your head to try and look at him but he pulls the back of your hair, turning your head away from him as you feel him jump against the back of your head, merging into you with a strange warm feeling, you feel your mouth and nose push forward as your body fills with lust, pressing your hands against your face as you feel your small mousy nose.

The fur from your nose starts spreading across the rest of your skin, your ears growing and thinning out until you have two large mouse ears as it crawls down your body. You feel your body start heating up as the fur spreads, your mousey fogged brain encouraging you to take off your clothes to cool off, so you comply, stripping naked as your body grows unbearable hot, the fur now covering most of your body as you feel a surge of pleasure in your cock, your shaft growing as the pleasure does.

Your hands move to your long thick mousey cock, stroking hard to release the pleasure as you feel the lustful urges from the merged mouse flood your body, your shaft throbbing with each stroke before cumming hard, spraying cum over the cage and desk, still hard and horny you sit there stroking your cock for hours, overcome by the lustful urges of the mouse.

Transformation 2: Hyena

Found by following the hyena into office 205.

The hall is empty; normally, there's plenty of foot traffic through here that would be audible from your office. It seems any earlier panic has already cleared out of this section of the labs. A few chairs, a water cooler, and potted plants line the opposite wall. There are 2 offices other than yours linked to this hall. There are 2 offices other than yours.

You hear something behind you as you duck to the side, as you see something dark and furry quickly fly by, yelping as it crashes into the wall. As you turn to look, a dazed hyena is shaking its head, as it faces the other direction, running down the hall into the office next to yours as you hear a man yell out in surprise.

You creep forwards, peeking into the room as you see the hyena on top of the man, or rather, halfway on him. His shirt and pants are torn off, a throbbing red cock between his legs as the hyena cackles above him, pushing itself further into the man. He groans, trying to jerk off to no avail; he lacks the dexterity he needs with his new half-hand, half-paw digits. You'd better leave before either of them spot you...

A shuffling sound comes from behind you as you turn, before you're knocked down, a throbbing red cock in your face. The owner cackles above you, a well endowed hyena as it forces you to roll over, and as you try to crawl away you feel something heavy jump on your back.

The hyena laughs as it thrusts forwards, its cock pushing into the seat of your pants as they rip, as you feel it pushing into you, groaning as you feel your body grow hot. From your rear, fur begins to sprout, your cock throbbing as it grows out, dark brown splotches covering it as it turns a pinkish red.

You can't help yourself as you grin, your teeth sharpening as the hyena's muzzle pushes against the back of your head, slowly moving in. It felt so good, so wild, as you stroked your growing cock. It tears off your shirt, claws grazing your skin as fur sprouts across your body at it's touch, along with your feet bursting out from your shoes as your toes spread.

As it pushes into you, the hyena's tail began merging with your spine, becoming your own tail, your feet clenching as the hyena's paws pushed into them, socks shredding as thick black claws clicked against the floor

You began to cackle, sounding just like the feral animal you were merging with as its instincts flooded your mind, the hyena's head almost fully merged with yours. With a howl, you cum hard, the fur completely covering you as your tongue rolls out, your human and hyena mind fully one as you get up cackling. Time to make a new pack~

Transformation 3: Rat

Found by failing the basement access minigame

Ah fuck. Of course that wasn't it. Wasn't this something you used to pluck into a calculator to make your friends laugh back in school...?

But before you can get nostalgic about old times, a squeak rings alarmingly close to your ears. You barely have a second to react before a grey furred rat has clambered up your arm from the keypad, clawing into your shoulder, around your back, and with an alien force, pushes into the space between your neck and the upper part of your backside. You feel your whole body shutter as your arms immediately grow a layer of grey fur, pushing out of your lab coat while your hands grow long, gnarled claws on the tips of rough pink skin. Your pants bulge out hard as your spine lengthens into a long, thick tail, while on the other side of your pants, your cock grows a few extra sizes, tearing through the front of your underwear and popping out your pants button as your cock bursts out of your work pants. There's a brief moment of struggle from you as your mind whirls, the rat fusing to your consciousness and overpowering any sensation of struggle as you curl your toes, but doing so causes your growing claws to tear into the soles of your shoes. Your nose grows out, and so does your teeth, while your eyes flash a full, bloody red. Your exposed cock throbs on its own as you eagerly begin rubbing the base of your throbbing animalistic cock.

The second you orgasm, your toes spread apart, and they tear right through your black shoes, pushing apart each half and ripping them to complete, useless shreds, easily allowing you to step out of them.

Your head whips around with a horny chitter, your strong hand gripping your thick erect cock. You can smell humans nearby, and you can't wait to have fun with them....!

Transformation 4: White rabbit

Found by entering the lobby and attempting to swat the leaping rabbit away

As you step into the first floor, you hear a quiet pattering on the floor. You turn to look for where it's coming from when a small, white rabbit hiding in the corner suddenly jumps out at you! You reach your hands out to try and catch the rabbit, but it thuds into your chest and you fall back with it onto the floor. As you look down, you see the rabbit start morphing into your body, it's snowy white fur spreading over your skin as you feel warm inside, the warmth covering your whole body as you huff, big, long ears popping up on top of your head, a puffy little tail accenting your rear, which seems to have gotten a bit larger...

Your paws start to press against the walls of your shoes, before tearing out from the side and bursting them onto the floor, crushing your original shoes in huge, fluffy stompers. The heat inside you keeps increasing as your chest starts to bulge, forming up into large, heavy breasts that bounce in front of you, your paws immediately coming up to squeeze and fondle them softly, moaning under your breath as your cock bulges hard underneath you.

You moan and lean against the wall a bit as you feel a wet, tight pussy open beneath your balls, a new hole to be bred by any mate you find.

Speaking of which, your mind is now dead-set on that exact goal: finding the first mate you can and having them breed you to oblivion. Time to get searching!

Transformation 5: Wolf

Found by interacting with the prowling wolf on floor 3

You brace yourself as you leap forwards, fully intending to run, but it seems it wasn't your lucky day. Tripping over what would have been an obvious broken chair leg you tumble into the wall, as the wolf looks up, licking its lips as it pounces on you, already forcing you onto all fours. He wastes no time, his cock thrusting inside you as gray fur begins sprouting on your rear, your pants beginning to tear. It pulls them off with its sharp claws as they press against your skin, sinking in as you feel your toes pop and shift, breaking out of the prison of your boots, claws pushing out as your bones rearrange. Your shoes don't stand a chance, straining as your feet rapidly expand into large paws before bursting.

The wolf is panting in your ear, his thick tongue slobbering your neck as he thrusts hard, his knot already popping as you feel him slipping inside you. It felt so wrong, yet so good, as his thrusting hips force you to thrust as well, your hand reaching down to wrap around a hard canine cock beneath you. You toss your shredded underwear to the side as you growl, feeling the animalistic urges beginning to take over as the canine pressed against you.

Must mate, must find pack A voice in the back of your head says, as you groan, tongue lolling out as the wagging tail merges with your spine.

The urge to thrust into your hand as pads begin forming on it, to howl as you climax, to sniff around for more mates is all you can think of as the wolf presses its muzzle into the back of your head as your face begins pushing out. You were a good alpha, you needed to lead your pack!

You howl as you cum hard, your own knot popping as you pant heavily, feeling the last of your humanity drain as you shakily get onto your legs, already getting hard as you begin to sniff the air.

Time to find new packmates it seems~

Transformation 6: German Shepherd

Found by petting the dog in the examination room

You reach over, scratching the dog behind his ears as it licks your hand, whining. Beneath you see a throbbing red cock, as it tries to lunge forwards, scaring you and knocking you down. With a loud SNAP it breaks, as the dog barks, running towards you as you try to scramble away, only for it to grab your neck in its jaws, forcing a whimper out of you. He wastes no time, thrusting his cock against your rear as you feel him prodding into you, his cock already throbbing as he thrusts forwards, catching you off guard.

You feel him thrust through your pants, the fabric easily shredding as you let out a loud whine, brown and black fur beginning to sprout on your rear as the german shepherd growls, nipping you as he wraps his arms around your waist. There's no escaping now as you feel him stepping on your leg, as his paws sink in, your feet flexing as they explode out of your shoes, claws and fur appearing as you groan.

The dog is in heaven, drooling as you feel it pushing further into you, your cock beginning to throb as it begins to deepen in color, becoming red as the skin folds up underneath you, becoming a sheathe. Trying and failing to grab your cock, you look below you as the fur covers your belly, a row of nipples forming as the shepherd continues merging with you, your chest barreling out as you let out an inhuman whine as you feel your knot straining against its sheathe, desperate to cum.

The dog pushes its wet nose into the back of your neck as the two of you howl in unison as his head merges with yours, face pushing out in a muzzle as you cum hard, splattering the floor beneath you. You hump against the air as you feel your instincts take over, howling through the halls as other canines chime in. Time to find some new pups to breed it seems~

Transformation 7: Hawk

Found by hesitating for 12 seconds before entering the helicopter

SQUAAAW

Over the deafening sound of the helicopter blades, the sound of a diving bird catches you off guard, grabbing onto your back and making you trip. You try and flail the creature off, but it's wings slide into your shoulder blades, merging with your body and effortlessly mending itself with your mind. Your feet grow heavily, dangerously sharp talons bursting out of your shoes while a layer of brown feathers coat your body. The head of the hawk pushes into the back of your head, which in turn, pushes your beak out the front of your face.

Your wings, although merged with your arms, fold out of your shoulder blades, and your arms become muscled and layered with dry yellow skin, tipped with sharp black talons at the ends of your fingers.

Your cock pushes out of your pants, which you quickly start to stroke, panting as your other hand slides to your breast. Pillowing out in front of you, a hefty set of feminine breasts stiffens out, and your hips curve in a seductive way. You could be mistaken for a pole dancer for how you move your body, especially with how your mind flips functions, immediately loving the feeling of being powerful and strong, and so, so incredibly horny for another human body to slide into, and not just with your cock~

The helicopter has begun lifting off, settling on you being a lost cause, but you know there are humans on there, ones that look especially tasty. With a flap of your wings, leaving your old lab coat in shredded tatters, you take off for the helicopter, ready to make more humans fly~!

Transformation 8: Corgi

Found by entering the directors office

You open the door to the manager's office, looking around as you try to see anything of use. There's a coat rack, some chairs, a desk, a large filing cabinet, a half transformed person, a lamp... wait.

The creature is half behind the desk, moaning as you see a small dog almost fully merged into it as it barks, tongue lolling out as its cock throbs on its belly, howling as it cums, spraying the desk. Before you can escape it manages to scabble to its feet, as it grabs your hands, pressing you against the wall as you feel it thrusting against your rear.

It growls as it pushes in, your pants torn off by it's strong claws, eliciting a moan as you feel its grip harden around your wrists, before you realize it wasn't tightening its grip, it was sinking in. Your hands merge with the creature's, as you barely manage to hold yourself against the wall. It knew exactly what it was doing, thrusting hard and fast into you as the fur covering it began spreading to you, as it moved one of its paws against your leg.

The claws scratched your pants, tearing them off, as it pushed them deep inside you, the digitigrade legs forcing your bones to rearrange as it forced your arms to grab its waist, pulling it deeper into you. The canine head was panting next to yours, as it barked, the fur spreading up your neck.

One hand begins to stroke your cock as it begins growing, the other rubbing your belly as the urge to mark your territory, to show off your dominance to other dogs begins creeping into your mind, as your face pops. The last shreds of your clothes lay scattered on the floor as your nose twitches, turning black as your jaw popping as it shifts out, becoming a small muzzle as the creature's head seems to move closer to yours, your hecks merging as it moves to the side, licking your muzzle as you begin licking back, whining as the changes nearly finished. You're such a good boy, you needed to cum, to start being a good doggy!

You can't help it as you howl, your other head lifting its muzzle and joining in as you cum hard, covering the room in your seed.

Transformation 9: Sea Serpent

Found by failing the crossing of the flooded area minigame

Oh fuck!

You try to jump to the next wooden piece, but the bad jump causes you to fall backwards into the water, creating a huge splash. The coolness of the water surprises you, but what surprises you even more is how deep the flood is. You sink for quite a while before you blink back into consciousness to scramble up to the surface.

However, instead of you looking through the water to the surface, your legs are immediately grabbed by a smooth, thick snake tail. You struggle as you spot the glowing yellow eyes of a sea serpent, splashing through the current with a large, toothy smile.

You already feel the creature's body merging with your legs. A good part of you tries to struggle away, but, surprisingly, the majority of your brain has already given up and is happily accepting the merging. It's a lot better than drowning, that's for sure.

Your legs push out as the smooth scales merge with the back of your body, ripping through your dress pants and tearing out the waist band. Your body quickly thickens out from your coat, tearing that off from your back, and, not long after that, your cock throbs out of a slit two thirds down your elongating noodle body. You let out a low, horny purr as your mind swirls with desire, your face pushing out into a muzzle as your long, snake-like tongue licks at your five-foot long cock. You're very large, and very horny~

Your animalistic senses perk up. Another human has entered the basement, probably trying to get to the tram to escape. You know the serpent waited for you to fall in before you became one with it, but this time, you're not going to be patient~

With a flick of your tail, you launch out of the water with an explosion of water and a flash of your now bright yellow eyes, locking on target of the stumbling back scientist. You can feel your cock throb with excitement to bring even more souls into your body, starting with this one~

Transformation 10: Shark

Found by attempting to swim across the flooded area

You push into the water, paddling through it. The water is surprisingly hard to move through, and you're surprised to feel that the water goes a lot deeper than you would have thought...

Seconds after you kick off into the water, however, a dark shape swims through the water, fast approaching you! Oh shit!

You scramble away, but the shape slams into you, knocking you off course and against one of the walls. The soft, cool skin of a shark is pressing against you!

You try to push them off, but your arms slip right into the animal, causing your body to quickly start merging into them. Your pants bulge out from behind, thickening out with a giant, thick swimming tail.

Your hands grow thick claws, and your skin becomes rough, your growing fins bursting out of your shirt as you bulk up more and more muscle. The shark pushes into your face, which stretches out your mouth into a wide, toothy smile. The natural, predatorial joy you have causes your cock to thicken, pushing out into two thick knotted cocks~

You growl, then cum into the water, stroking your cocks as your hands and feet become tightly webbed. Very soft, and perfect to stroke your own cocks as your mind clouds over with feral desire. You're the master of these waters, and anyone who dares approach will know how sharp your teeth are, and how hard your cocks are~

Transformation 11: Husky dog

Found by opening the closet in the basement with the scratching noises

You open up the door. Part of you almost convinces yourself that an animal that hadn't been infected with the virus was still just trapped in one of the rooms. How much you would have loved if you got to see a normal dog, after all of this madness.

But instead of the warm, loving eyes and natural smile of a dog, you're greeted to something you should have expected, a very horny flash in a husky's eyes. They leap out at you, and before you have any chance to react, they're already on top of you. Your arms try to grab the creature off of you, but doing so only makes your body meld together with the dog's. Your hands pull up into paws with sharp claws on the tips, and your legs fatten out into digitigrade legs, ripping up the seams of your dress pants and only leaving the waist band. Your cock is hugged by a sheath, but only barely covered as it grows and thickens into a very thick, very leaky red knotted cock.

The muzzle of the canine pushes into your face, and you feel your whole skull reshaping, your mouth pulling forwards with sharpening teeth. You let out a low growl as your balls grow with churning cum.

You lean up against a wall, your fluff covering the rest of your body with a coat of black and white fur. Your tail pushes out of your rear, wagging as you stroke your cock, shooting a few ropes of cum.

As you're panting, you look down at the closet you opened to see a radio. The clothes of a police officer have been torn apart.

You pick up the radio.

"Calling all forces," you speak into the radio, licking your lips, "Requesting back up. I repeat, requesting back up. Send everyone."

You growl, your cock throbbing. You're about to have a real feast now~

Transformation 12: Cat

Found by not giving the cat on the tram controls scratches

You nudge the cat aside, but as soon as your hand pushes the cat on the controls, your hand slips right though! The cat hisses at you before melting into your hand, sending orange fur up your arms. Soon you're covered in fur and sprouting claws from your fingers, a tail from your behind, and cute, orange kitty ears from the top of your head. You swiftly get up and acknowledge the weight pulling you forward as you look down at your newfound boobs! You're a hermaphrodite now!

You purr to yourself softly as you bring your new hand paws up to your heavy kitty boobs to give them a squeeze. As you squeeze your new boobs, you moan from how good it feels, they're really sensitive. You notice that your kitty cock is peeking out too, so you gently start rubbing it, feeling the spines rub back on your fleshy paw pad. Precum leaks out of your tip as you keep pumping up and down on your new dick. You feel a heat building up inside your fuzzy sack, making your dick twitch in your paws.

Your grunting becomes a little more insistent as your pleasure scales tip, bringing you to orgasm. Your kitty cock spitting out ropes of cum all over the controls in front of you. You pant softly as you regain your breath.

Maybe this outbreak isn't that bad after all! You turn around and bounce your new tits, giggling to yourself before returning to the outbreak, looking for someone to fuck.

Transformation 13: Red fox

Found in the campus forest

The terrain is a bit rough here. You should probably be careful...but you can hear approaching animals from behind!

Your foot gets caught in the den, tripping over and falling over with a large thump. You push yourself up on all fours as you hear a shifting behind you, not thinking to get up you look back and see the owner of the den poking out to see what's going on before looking at you. The two of you exchange glances for a second before the fox jumps at you, feeling him strike on your tailbone as he merges with you, all but his tail becoming one with your body. The tail begins swelling and growing, feeling a warm pleasure spread across your body with a flush of heat as your form grows, you finally pull yourself up to see your feet burst through the front of your shoes as your clothes start ripping. You fall over backwards this time, tail between your legs as your shoes bust open completely, falling off as pleasure fills your body, your clothes ripping off as your size becomes too much for them. Your cock, now a massive knotted rocket, throbs and twitches as the pleasure from your merger grows. A gentle gust of wind brushes against your sensitive member, pushing you over the edge and forcing you to cum hard, throbbing and pumping your load into the air as you moan, splattering it over your own fur.

As your orgasm slows your look at your old den, deeming you need a new one as you stroke your cock aiming into it, may as well fill in the old one before you search for your new home.

Transformation 14: Deer

Snap!

Your foot steps on a twig, and you notice the flicking of the ears of a blue-eyed deer. Their coffee brown fur gently flickers in the breeze as the two of you make eye contact.

Both of you are frozen in place...

You quickly turn around and bolt it in the other direction. The deer, with a flash of their bright blue eyes, leaps towards you with surprising speed. You stumble back, but they're already on top of you, flipping you around onto your back and pressing into your back. Already, your arms and legs merge without trouble into the soft hooves of the deer.

The weight of the deer slides into your body, and you're basked in a deep, pleasurable warmth. Your cock tents your pants, before busting out the front. Your hooves grow thicker, which tear open the top of your shoes as they fall into tatters around you, along with your lab coat and pants.

The head of the deer pushes into the back of your head, which in turn, pushes out your nose into a long, soft deer muzzle. Your hands, which you almost think will become hooves as well, instead turn into dextrous hands.

Of course, your mind swirls, to grip your own thick deer cock.

Your thick, slightly equine cock pushes out and throbs up against your growing breasts, and your mind fills with feminine heat, a womb growing into your lower belly and venting out into a fertile pussy between your thick thighs and right between your fat cock and growing balls.

You moan, your fingers slipping into your pussy as you grope your breasts, your cock squirting into the forest ground. You lick your lips, the feral desire to mate swirling around in your mind until...

Snap!

The sound of a twig perks your ears up. Your eyes widen with excitement. Time to have some fun~

Transformation 15: Skunk

Found in the campus forest

Walking through the woods, you hear a gentle twitching through the bushes nearby. Looking closely, you realize the distinct shape and color of a wild skunk. Well, despite the current situation, getting chased by a skunk is never a good thing. You decide it would be a good idea to keep out of its' way and try to pass by undetected....

As you step through the woods, you carefully tiptoe around everything that could make a sound, until you hear a loud, sudden snap under your foot...

A small twig, no thicker than a nail, smashed under your foot as you somehow missed it through your intense concentration.

That's the least of your worries, however, as the rustling from the bushes increase in volume, and the skunk that was patrolling leaps out from them and tackles you to the ground!

Before you have any chance to realize what to do, the skunk has already started merging into you, the thick, black and white fur spreading over your body, your nose elongating, your massive tail exploding out from your pants as it shadows everything behind you...

You lay back, the warmth of merging with the new animal manifesting as heat, and you eagerly grab your cock as it bursts through your pants, pulsing in your gentle paws, growing a little as you stroke it off eagerly.

You paw excitedly for a few minutes and stuff your cock into your massive, bushy tail, cumming hard into the thick folds of infinitely soft and supple fur, the last shreds of your clothes across your body, huffing as you empty yourself. You decide to continue the skunk's routine before you showed up. Who knows? Maybe you'll catch someone new!

Transformation 16: Squirrel

Found in the campus forest

A nutty smell comes from a nearby den beneath a tree...it smells very tasty.

You investigate the small den, poking your head in and the nutty aroma before your face is covered by a strange furry creature, the squirrel that called it home quickly jumping on you, merging into your face causing a large squirrely tail to rip through your pants as it grows behind you. Your body flushes with heat and pleasure as you grab the tail, curiously feeling it before your brain is overcome with a lustful thought. you push your tail between your legs, your pants having been destroyed by the sudden growth of the tail, as you start grinding your cock in it, your tail perfectly stimulating your cock, fur growing over your body as you grow closer to cumming inside it. Your cock growing and throbbing as your warm tail feels surprisingly gooey and welcoming around your member, the large thick shaft hilding its way inside as you feel your head shift, your ears and snout growing as you moan loudly, cumming heavily in your tail.

Even once your transformation finishes you can't your tail feels too good around your squirrely shaft as you continue to fuck it, eager to cum into your lustful tail for hours.

Transformation 17: Panther

The sounds of very large paws crunch through the leaves nearby, and the growling of some kind of feline is close by.

What do you do...??

You're met quite quickly with the creature. A black panther, with perfect fur and bright hunter's eyes. Having casually strolled up to it, the panther seems happy to let you pet it, purring deeply, but as soon as you scritch behind it's neck, the creature moves up to you, pouncing onto your body.

Your hands meet his paws, and as soon as they do, your hands merge inside of their paws, combining into dextrous, yet still very poofy paws. Your legs bulk up as you combine with them, your paws tightly hugging the sides of your shoes as you feel them rip and burst out of their prisons, tearing open along the seams and freeing your sharp panther claws.

Your heart beats harder as your muscle bulks up slightly, your cock dribbling as it grows longer and thicker, with a thick sheath around your base and sensitive nubs along the tip. Your tail pulls out of your body, fwipping and lashing about as you can feel your mind combining with the feral desires of the panther.

Your skull reshapes, growing sharp fangs, and your eyes turn a bright green. You thrust against the ground, wrapping your hand around your own cock and stroking it into the ground, gushing with copious amounts of precum.

You let out a low growl, your fur growing in fully as you cum into the leaves beneath you, releasing your load from your thick, churning balls. Your tail lashes with warmth and desire, your mind already taking on the desire to find more humans to merge with.

It's time to go hunting~!

Transformation 18: Harlequin rabbit

Found by transforming the human in general lab 1 and accepting the invitation to have fun

You close the door behind you, the lab filled with scattered chemicals and papers from the panic, nothing damaged but clear people bolted out of the room in a hurry. The room has a strange almost overpowering smell, the chemically stained counters covered in what seem to be lab reports of some kind but they're too damaged to read from the liquid. As you explore you hear a gentle knocking from the opposite side of the room, rattling the one way glass gently. You approach cautiously, looking through before seeing a person on the other side.

“Hey, is someone there? I heard the door close. Could you let me out? The door is has a magnetic lock, the controls should be on your side somewhere”

Surely enough there is a small control panel to your right, a variety of different buttons and controls, although it's typically not your area of expertise you notice one button that simply says lock surely that should let him out, hopefully.

On the other hand, finding a way out should take priority...

You press the button, hearing a mechanical click, the door however stays firmly shut. Confused, you press it again, resulting in another mechanical click. You look up from the console, seeing that two rabbits, one white and one black, have been released into the chamber, the person pressed into the far corner from the room panicking but too far away from the window for you to make out what he's saying. As the rabbits approach him, both of them bite his legs, merging into his body as his chest visible stays moving heavily. You notice his body starts growing fur from the initial merge point, black on the left and white on the right as it starts moving along his body, almost as if the creatures are moving inside him.

As they move to his head you see his body start swelling, growing in size as a strange gooey substance covers his head, shifting his features to match the rest of his form as his feet burst through his shoes. Bits of material fly all over the lab as his pants rip, half from the size of him and half from his newly growing sheath before long his form has doubled in size as the rest of his clothing rips from his size and falls off.

The now naked creature starts rubbing his sheath lustfully, his eyes, left red and right blue, staring through the window as his cock pushes out, the large throbbing member spurting cum over the window as he keeps stroking.

“You should find the door button and come in here, maybe we can have a good time~”

You decide to forget about escaping, pressing as many buttons you can until the door finally opens. You enter the room with the rabbit, who quickly jumps on you, knocking you to the floor as his lips lock with yours, his giant cock pressing against your pants as you feel his influence overwhelming you, your brain fogging as his member drips precum over you, already feeling your body warm and tingle. the “cum” starts merging and spreading over your body, leaving fur on your body where it was. You feel your body swelling and growing as it surges with pleasure, your cock growing with size as you drench your pants in precum, you feel your feet going, pressing against the sides of your shoe and growing ever tighter before they explode off with a loud bang. The rabbit finally breaks the kiss as your form continues swelling. Feeling the features on your head morph and shift as your form has already grown beyond the limit of your clothing, the lab coat being the only thing to remain on. The Rabbit smirks, you notice your hands are both white compared to his black fur, split perfectly down the middle from the white half.

“Such beautiful green eyes you have~ i think i might just make you mine, after all you so obediently came to keep me company~”

He presses his cock against your ass, quickly pushing inside you as your newly knotted member presses against his body. His fur rubbing and stimulating you as his cock presses firmly against every portion of your insides. It doesn't take long before you're moaning loudly, spurting cum across the both of you as he unloads his balls deep in your ass, in pure ecstasy you kiss him again, wanting to stay by his side. His toy to use forever
