

Funeral Posters

Funeral folders often include tributes and messages from family and friends, offering a glimpse into the impact the departed had on those around them. These heartfelt messages serve as a testament to the individual's character, values, and contributions to the lives of others.

Funeral folders play a crucial role in the mourning process, providing comfort, guidance, and a tangible connection to the departed. As attendees navigate the emotional journey of saying goodbye, these folders serve as steadfast companions, offering solace and support along the way. Moreover, funeral folders serve as cherished keepsakes for family and friends to cherish long after the memorial service has ended, preserving memories and fostering connections across generations.

One of the most meaningful aspects of funeral folders is the opportunity for personalization and customization. By tailoring each element to reflect the personality, interests, and values of the departed, families can create a tribute that truly honors their loved one's legacy. Whether through selecting specific photographs, incorporating meaningful quotes, or choosing thematic designs, funeral folders become intimate reflections of the individual's life and the love that surrounds them.

Beyond their immediate purpose, funeral folders serve as catalysts for preserving memories and honoring legacies for generations to come. Whether displayed in a memory box, tucked away in a scrapbook, or shared with future descendants, these folders offer a tangible link to the past, ensuring that the memory of the departed lives on in the hearts and minds of all who were touched by their presence. In this way, funeral folders become more than just guides through the memorial proceedings – they become cherished artifacts that celebrate the life, legacy, and enduring impact of the departed.

Obituary

TERRELL, 76, was welcomed into heaven on Thursday, July 25, 2010, loved by her family.

She was born on December 30, 1939. She was baptized and converted to Catholicism before her marriage to Joseph "Bobby" Terrell. She graduated from Anytown High School in 1957, and followed her husband by obtaining a Bachelor of Science, with an interest in Library Science and retired from the Tennessee Department of Education.

In her final life according to her faith, St. Thomas Catholic Church, where she was a member and often volunteered to help of Peter Claver Council 477 and the prayer group with her family, going to Mass weekly, always had a special place in her family and friends. She was a devoted mother and grandmother to her family and devoted to her home and devoted to her family of Anytown, LA, her son, Charles Terrell, and his wife, TX, and her three grandchildren, Chloe Terrell. She also leaves behind, three sons, her sister-in-law, Anne Terrell, Joyce and brother, Matthew Terrell, Jr.
