Duties

Head Cook - Wash hands, determine recipes, assign responsibilities to assistant cook, prepare meals, advise Patrol when meal will be served, Ensure all utensils used for cooking are clean.

Assistant Cook - Assist with meal preparation as determined by cook, prepare hand washing station with warm water and rinse water (use same tubs used for cleanup), boil water for cleanup.

Fire Builder - Arrange or clean fire pit in accordance with Scout policy. Find and stack wood needed for fire or start charcoal if needed. Ensure fire buckets are full (water and dirt). Keep fire going throughout meal. Ensure fire is completely out when no longer needed.

Water Bringer - Keep water jugs full and refill when needed. Fill fire buckets (Fire Builder will double check, but primary responsibility belongs here). Purify water if fresh water is not available.

Kitchen Clean Up/Asst. Kitchen Clean Up - Wash all non personal utensils and cooking equipment. Each Scout washes his own personal gear. Clear table and secure Patrol box. Oil Dutch oven if used. Notify Quartermaster if any supplies are needed.

Patrol 1 Site Cleaner/ Patrol 2 Site Cleaner - Dig/set up/clean latrine. Set up and secure camp gadgets. Secure garbage bags at night and start new one when current one is full. Responsible for Ax yard safety.

Other Patrol Responsibilities - The whole patrol should share camp site set up. After pitching individual tents, the Patrol may want to set up a dining fly and secure their food with their Patrol box. Build a fire ring if Patrol fire rings will be used. Gather wood for the weekend. Build any camp gadgets agreed upon by the Patrol. The Quartermaster should display the First Aid Kit in a prominent area and ensure it is well marked. At the conclusion of the camp out, the site should be returned to the same condition it was in with all trash carried out and brush returned where possible. Fire ring should be dispersed, leaving no sign if this was a new one established by the Patrol. Secure sump hole and latrine area.
