A journalist who aims to empower diverse voices and create a platform for unheard communities. I have excellent news reporting and management skills through working at Channel 31 as a News Presenter and an Editor-in-Chief at the Swanston Gazette. I am passionate about immersing audiences in real life experiences through audio and visual storytelling. Looking for journalism and communications jobs that allow me to enhance my skills in different platforms and mediums.

EDUCATION & QUALIFICATIONS

RMIT University - Bachelor of Communications (Journalism) GPA: 4.0 2027

WORK EXPERIENCE

News Presenter | Channel 31 - CTV News Jul 2026 to Sep 2026

Over the course of 10 weeks, I developed proficient news presenting skills through working on four 25-minute episodes. I gained excellent news reporting and research skills through producing 4 news bulletin stories and a 5–7-minute interview for every week I presented.

Assistant Producer | Channel 31 - CTV News Apr 2026 to Sep 2026

I assisted with producing, researching, and structuring six weekly news episodes over the course of 20 weeks. Working alongside the producer and news presenters, I ensured that episodes ran on time. I oversaw sub-editing news reports written by the presenters and fact-checking information.

Editor-in-Chief | The Swanston Gazette Feb 2026 to Present

In charge of the daily running of the publication, approving story pitches and 2-3 publishing stories every week on the website. I managed and designed the fortnightly newsletter, with four newsletters successfully published. Working with editors, I produced the annual print edition, with over 150 copies published.

Radio Host | SYN Media Sep 2025 to Present

Hosting 2 fortnightly radio shows, I oversee researching and producing the episodes. This includes contacting guests for interviews, curating songs, and structuring the run sheet. In producing the shows, I often utilise my audio production and news presenting skills.

Sales Associate | UniSadhuGuna Education Aug 2024 to Dec 2024

Spoke to parents and prospective students at education fairs and Open Day events, helping them find the most suitable education pathway. I helped structure the most ideal pathway, gaining on average 7 registrations per session.

Marketing and Communications Intern | UniSadhuGuna Education May 2024 to Dec 2024

Produced and uploaded daily social media content to 3 social media platforms, gaining over 100 likes per post. I produced and presented USG´s first podcast, The Voice of USG, driving engagement up by 15%.
