Kimberly Garcia
Cover Letter

My name is Kimberly, and I am from Birmingham, Alabama. I grew up in Guatemala. I am writing because I am looking for a job; specifically, I am seeking a position as a cashier and product organizer. I am an excellent candidate because I have experience working as a cashier, and in my previous job, I was responsible for organizing products.

I am responsible and hardworking. I learned to organize things at my previous job. I enjoy helping customers. I can learn new tasks quickly. I will continue improving my skills. These qualities make me a good candidate for a job.

In my previous jon, I learned to organize products and help customers. I learned to be responsible and hardworking. One challenge was dealing with difficult customers. I learned to stay calm and be respectful. This experience helped me become more patient. I will continue learning and improving my skills.

I would like the opportunity to have an interview to discuss the job. I am willing to learn new things and do my best. I would be happy to explain more about my skills and experience. Thank you for your time and attention. I appreciate the opportunity to apply for this job. You can contact me by text message or email.
