TwitchSMP LEATHER? I HARDLY KNOW HER! (VikingPilot), timestamp: 1:32:10

SUMMARY:

After Viking keeps drawing parallels between Dominion and TSMP, Ruby says something that causes Viking to improv a hypothetical future.

Technically this didn't actually happen... but Viking and Ruby later mention having dreams similar to the scenario laid out here.

Viking: Let's just say...

Ruby: [in chat] It's just so you- No matter the universe or time... After all this time it is still you :)

Viking: "It's just so you, no matter the universe or time, after all this time it is still you." Yes. That sounds... very, uh... [snaps fingers] What's the... What is the- the word that I want for this.

Uhm. What's the word I want, there's a word for this. The phrase, "It's just so you, no matter the universe or time... After all this time, it is still you." That phrase...

[Viking goes silent for a bit as he thinks.]

Viking: That is a- a phrase that could like... I'm just imagining, right, like— Ohhhhhhh. [high pitched] Ohhh, give me a second! [scheming giggle] Imagining the fanart, give me a second. [reading chat] "You and Valkyrie gotta play more Undertale". "Ruby, I'm stealing your build." Imagine, right? Dramatic moment.

Ruby: [in chat] I need Fanart with that sentence-

Viking: "I need fanart with that sentence." Ruby, I- I need you to log on so we can create this moment, thematically, and then actually recreate it later in lore.

[Viking goes up onto the roof.]

Viking: Um, imagine, right?

[Viking stands on the edge, next to the Fish Adjacent Roof Creature, and looks out over the landscape.]

Viking: Viking. Viking, holding Ruby— like, by the scruff of their neck over the edge of a cliff, right. Because something— Something happened, we don't know what. Viking, holding Ruby by the scruff of her ne— Like, her shirt, like da— hanging. Like, over like a cliff. And, like, Viking's enraged, right, like just angry, something went wrong, right. Something's gone horribly wrong. Like, Viking is so mad. And then—

[Ruby logs on.]

Viking: Through coughing up... liquids, I won't say— I won't be graphic, but y'know, coughing through- cough through pain, coughing and stuff like that, Ruby just goes...

[Ruby runs up to Viking's house.]

Viking: Ruby just goes—!

[Ruby runs inside.]

Viking: Just- just goes— Ruby just goes—

[Viking watches Ruby's nametag go upstairs.]

Viking: And- And goes—

[Ruby climbs up onto the roof.]

Viking: ...hold on.

[Ruby stands on the edge and looks at Viking.]

Viking: Ruby just goes...!

[Ruby takes off their armor. On facecam, Viking gestures dramatically for them to take their cue. Back in game, he pulls out his sword.]

Viking: ...are you muted, can you not talk.

Ruby: [quiet giggling]

Viking: You gotta say it however you wanna say it, 'cause I know how I would say it if I was you, but you gotta say the line.

Ruby: [sleepy] Okay, okay, I get it, I get it, wait, hold on, I'm [mumbling]

Viking: [reading chat] "I don't think Ruby goes". Fymada! [laughs]

Ruby: Ahem.

Viking: Like— Beat up Ruby.

Ruby: [in character] It's— It's just so you. [pained cough]

Viking: [wheezes]

Ruby: [strained] No matter the universe or time... After all this time, it's still... you.

Viking: And Viking's like AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA and then just—

[Viking smacks Ruby with a steak and knocks them off the roof.]

Viking: Boop! [laughs]

[Ruby logs out after hitting the ground.]

Viking: And then Ruby's dead. Gone forever. [claps] —Fymada, thank you so much for that follow, welcome to the stream! [laughs] How're you doin' today? Because of you we're now up to 12,252 follo- followers, so thank you thank you thank you, if you wanna tell us how your day's going, go for it, if not it's up to you, welcome and I hope you enjoy the stream— HI JAY!

[Jay walks up and waves.]

Jay: Hello.

Viking: Hold still.

[Viking pulls out his sword again.]

Jay: I'm here to steal Ruby's base.

Viking: Oh, go for it.

[Viking MLGs down.]

Viking: [reading chat] “Long live the king”. “What is this roleplay I've walked in on?” Fymada, um, let's just say my chat's drawing a lot of parallels to another series I did, and I was like, “What if we had this big dramatic moment”, 'cause Ruby dropped the line in my chat, the line was um... “It's just so you! No matter the universe or time, after all this time, it's still you.” Like, Ruby said that in my chat, and it's like... Imagine if Vi— Imagine if that's the line that like, just sends it over the edge.

Viking: [reading chat] “Again, I feel like if you dropped Ruby off a cliff she'd hover in the air for a few seconds before comedically dropping like a rock, and then making a Ruby-shaped crater in the ground before sitting up with stars and beets swirling around her head.” Yeah, that's right. That's true. That's definitely what happens. Every time. Fymada, um, I've got some diamonds. Just now- Like this is— This was one mining trip. One mining trip. [laughs]

[Viking organizes his chests while chat riffs on the idea.]

Viking: Put the saddle in here and the armor in here, that kinda makes sense. And then nametag will go in here... [reading chat] “God, I wish I could draw for- for fizzle. I would be so speed drawing that cliff scene”, “Viking trying to go full anime but Ruby's a cartoon character”¹, yeah.

Ruby: [in chat] So canonically IN LORE RUBY would shatter on the floor

Viking: [reading chat] “Local fanartist taking notes.” Yeah, Ruby would shatter. That's the coolest part. Ruby would shatter into a million pieces on the floor, and Viking would look down and be like, in a fit of rage, and then realize, “what have I done.”

¹ this was me. help.
