

Paid Research Internship: Political Awareness and Social Justice

Company: Get Social

Location: Remote

Duration: Start date: May 1st - December 1st

About Get Social:

Get Social is a forward-thinking social media agency made up of women of color, committed to amplifying voices for political change and social justice. We specialize in crafting impactful content, developing strategic campaigns, and fostering meaningful connections with audiences across various social media platforms. Our team is passionate about promoting political awareness and advocating for social justice issues through creative storytelling and digital engagement.

Position Overview:

We are seeking a motivated and passionate individual to join our team as a Paid Research Intern focusing on Political Awareness and Social Justice. This internship offers an exciting opportunity to contribute to our mission while gaining valuable research experience in a dynamic and collaborative environment.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct In-Depth Research: Conduct comprehensive research on political and social justice issues, including but not limited to policy analysis, historical contexts, and current events. Utilize a variety of reputable sources to gather information and insights.
- Content Development: Assist in the development of engaging and informative content for social media platforms, blog posts, articles, and other digital channels. Contribute ideas for content that raises awareness, educates audiences, and promotes dialogue on critical issues.
- Monitor News and Developments: Stay updated on breaking news, legislative developments, and emerging trends in politics and social justice. Monitor relevant social media conversations and contribute to ongoing discussions with timely and relevant insights through Google Alerts
- Collaborate with Team Members: Work closely with members of the Get Social With Teja team to coordinate research efforts, brainstorm ideas, and support ongoing initiatives. Collaborate effectively to ensure alignment with organizational goals and objectives.

Qualifications:

- Interest in politics, social justice, and advocacy a plus
- Great research and analytical skills, with the ability to gather and interpret information from diverse sources.
- Solid understanding of social media platforms and digital communication strategies.
- Intermediate written and verbal communication skills, with a keen attention to detail.
- Ability to work independently as well as collaboratively in a fast-paced environment.
- Commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion principles.

Benefits:

- Paid internship - $700 stipend per month
- Opportunity to contribute to meaningful campaigns that make a difference in the world.
- Mentorship from experienced professionals in the fields of politics, social justice, and digital marketing.
- Flexible remote work arrangement
- Work with like minded women of color
