

English 5103-3 END-OF-COURSE OUTCOMES
Competency 1: Uses language/talk to communicate and to learn (40%)

I CAN:		My Learning Is: 	Demonstrated I GOT IT!
1.1 Effective communication of ideas Oral presentation	Introduce my topic in a way that creates interest for my audience
	Direct my audience so that they have an idea of what will be covered in my presentation
	Speak using neutral language
	Present information in a way that keeps the audience interested
	Present information in a way that convinces the audience (they believe in what you are saying) while staying objective
	Demonstrate what I am talking about (through videos, objects, examples, diagrams...etc)
	Include facts, statistics, expert opinions that support my presentation
	Use visual devices
	Conclude my ideas before ending my presentation

I CAN:		My Learning Is: 	Demonstrated I GOT IT!
1.3 Appropriate use of language conventions Oral presentation	Vary the tone of my voice to match what I am saying and to keep interest
	Emphasis words or concepts to demonstrate significance of what I have said so that the audience better understands
	Adjust my speed when speaking to ensure my audience can follow what I am saying and remain interested
	Consider the context of my topic and adapt my style and formality accordingly
	Consider my audience and adapt my style and formality accordingly
	Move around the room as needed to demonstrate or engage audience
	Use hand or body gestures to demonstrate or point to objects as needed
	Stand in a confident way
	I use facial expressions that help enhance what I am saying		