Friend Eulogy Template

Friendship is a choice we make every day, and [Name] was the kind of friend who made that choice easy. For 25 years, they were my partner in crime, my shoulder to cry on, and often the voice of reason I needed to hear. They showed up for the celebrations and the struggles, always ready with either a hug or a humor-filled reality check, depending on what the situation called for.

[Name] had a gift for friendship that went beyond the usual boundaries. They remembered not just your birthday, but your mom's birthday. Plus, they knew your coffee order, your fears, your dreams, and exactly what to say when life got tough. They were the friend who would help you move without being asked, show up with soup when you were sick, and tell you the truth even when it wasn't what you wanted to hear.

Their friendship came with no judgment, no conditions, and no expiration date. Whether we talked every day or went months without seeing each other, we could always pick up right where we left off. They taught me that true friendship isn't about quantity of time spent together, but about the quality of connection when you are together.

Our adventures together created some of my favorite memories – from impromptu road trips to late-night conversations about life's big questions. [Name] approached friendship like they approached life – with authenticity, humor, and an open heart.
