

Cum Monsters

By Foxxing

Note: Submission for the halloweiner contest. Premise is the player is cum filled (vaginally, orally or anal) and somehow that cum gains mass and sentience (is a mystery) before rocking the pc's world. I initially was going to make it all a single scene with variation for different types of cum but decided to make each one its own self contained thing to make coding each variant of the scene easier.

Oral Cum Event

{if pc is orally filled:

As you try to fall asleep you can't seem to get quite as comfortable as you want. First you're twisting and repositioning, then you're stretching and leaning in an attempt to find that perfect position. {silly mode: The crazy thing is that sleep is normally as easy as pressing a button for you but for some reason you just can't get there./other modes: You irritably wonder what kind of evolutionary advantage insomnia could possibly have and why no species has evolved past it.}

After a while your ceaseless efforts are rewarded as you find a reasonably comfortable position and try to drift off... but, of course, you're suddenly thirsty. You don't want to get up just to get a mouth full of water from your ship's tank so you try to ignore the feeling and begin thinking about your day.

Suddenly there's a very familiar taste on your [pc.lips] and the back of your throat. When you take a moment to consider the oral nature of your recent activities it makes sense that you would taste such a thing... actually come to think of it that is something you never should have stopped tasting. Afterall cum doesn't just disappear and reappear like that. With a shrug you dismiss the thought and snuggle back into bed, happy that you're, so conveniently, no longer thirsty.

As you close your eyes your [pc.belly] begins to feel a bit more squirmy than usual. You try to ignore the feeling until you feel your [pc.lips] getting wet, as if you're drooling for some reason. It's very odd considering how parched you were a second ago. Feeling more than a little annoyed you sit up and turn on the lights.

Wait... that doesn't taste like spit.

Putting your hand to your [pc.face] you reel back in surprise as the ejaculant in your throat begins to fall from your lips like a waterfall. Somehow it isn't obstructing your breathing but stars where the fuck is all that even coming from? When you think to go grab a container you see a bucket, but as you stand you slip in the mess streaming from your lips and fall. You brace yourself to hit the floor but instead are engulfed by a pool of spunk. As the bottomless lake of jizz absorbs your momentum you can't help but wonder how did this puddle become an ocean? There is no way you swallowed this much cum.

Suspended in the liquid you thrash around for a moment only to realize that somehow you're still able to breathe... that is until you feel the all too familiar feeling of a cock being shoved down your throat.

The cock shaped cum unceremoniously travels down your gullet, becoming one with the reservoir of semen spewing from your maw which forms into bigger, thicker version of its former self. You hear a gasp of contentment from somewhere above as you begin to suck. You feel yourself getting aroused, your hand reaching down to rub your [pc.groin] in that weightless sea of cum. You relax, the slow repetitive task of a lazy suck combines with a soft arousal. Yawning around the cock in your mouth you can't help but think, "Now this is comfortable."

You awake with a start, and then can't help but chuckle at yourself for dreaming such lewd things. As you recount the events it becomes more and more obvious that it was a dream as you've never even seen that bedroom before. As you rise to get your day started, though, you almost slip on what looks like a few droplets of the cum from that very dream. Strange.

Anal Cum Monster

{if pc is anally filled:

As per the usual when you try to go to sleep you just find a comfortable position and instantly you're on your way. Yet before you get into that deep second stage of slumber you feel something on your [pc.ass]. Unwilling to deal with whatever it is you wiggle your butt in an attempt to get away from the offending sensation. When it stops you simply smile and try to doze off again.

That's when a very wet slap lands on your [pc.ass].

Your [pc.eyes] snap open as you fly out of your perfectly perfect sleeping position, still under the covers as you cast about for whatever jackass is fucking with you while you try to sleep. There is no way you could have imagined that but it could always be someone playing a prank on you. In an effort to find answers you lean over and check to see if someone is hiding under the bed. As you do you feel your blanket sliding off, fresh air hitting your [pc.ass] in the process. This causes you to pause for a second because something feels... off. However you can't seem to remember if you were even naked when you went to bed.

Shrugging off the weird feeling, you go ahead and check under the bed only to find absolutely nothing there. That is when your [pc.leg] slides against something wet. Before you can get up there to see what the fuck that was you feel something two goopy hands hit your lower back, holding you down as and something wet, slimy and erect forms inside your [pc.asshole].

Looking over your shoulder you watch in horror as a gooey monster forms, an androgynous humanoid that appears to be made of all the spunk you've had deposited deep into your back door. Stars that thing's cock is huge too, filling you up and gaining in both length and girth until you're so stuffed that you have to spread your legs to let it grow.

Soon the androgynous cum monster is railing you good, hands snatching you back as every thrust propels you forward. Its trunk wetly claps against your [pc.thighs] as your hole is stretched to the max and you can't help but love every second of it. The creature knows your [pc.asshole] almost as well as you do, which makes sense considering where it came from.

/if pc is naga:

Your [pc.eyes] snap open as you hurl yourself away from that slap, not that it hurt. Your lower half has become wrapped in the blanket so you take a second to disentangle yourself, your [pc.ass] hitting the air as you do. Looking down at your lower half you feel like something is a little... off. However you can't seem to remember if you were naked when you went to bed.

You shrug off the odd feeling and glance around the room, rising onto your coils you make yourself high in an attempt to see if there is anyone hiding and playing a prank on you. Suddenly you feel strong slimy hands bending you over, smashing your [pc.face] into the bed. Glancing back you see that the hands forcing you down are not only dripping gooey limbs but they're also coming from your [pc.ass]!

The creature ignores your confusion as it forces you back down. Inside your [pc.asshole] you feel a something long and phallic forming, most likely from the remnants of all the cum that has been buried in your back door. A gooey creature grows and shifts from the jizz, becoming an androgynous humanoid, and once it has feet it uses them to drill its thick cock deeper into you. You squirm in an attempt to lessen your discomfort but instead end up hanging off the edge of the bed. As you try to relax your hole around the cock it begins to grow, gaining in length and girth until you feel so full you might break. In the end you can't help but wrap your [pc.legs] around its legs. The creature simply puts its feet together and begins fucking downward, that giant dick giving you every inch you could possibly handle.

Soon the androgynous cum monster is railing you good, its legs being bound by yours only serves to make it fuck you even harder. With every thrust its trunk wetly claps against your [pc.thighs]. Despite how big it feels you can't help but love every second of it. The creature knows your [pc.asshole] almost as well as you do, which makes sense considering where it came from.

/if pc is taur:

Your [pc.eyes] snap open as you twist around and heave yourself up, all the while casting around to see who the fuck just slapped you on the ass. Figuring it must be some asshole playing a prank you canter around the large room, keeping your bed to one side as you search. Yet as you circle around to your starting position you notice you're leaving a very thick trail of... is that jizz?

You twist in an attempt to see what is going on with your back half. Did you even go to sleep naked like this? You honestly can't recall but you certainly remember how some cum would have gotten in your [pc.asshole]. As you think about how much spunk is sitting in your hole you see something move out the corner of your eye. You take a few steps back only to see that the cum you're leaking is suddenly coming straight at you!

You yelp as the spunky aberration hoists you up, transforming from a wave of spunk into strong gooey hands that painlessly support your weight despite your thrashing. You kick at the goo for a moment until you feel something long and phallic forming inside your [pc.asshole]. It moves through your insides, becoming an ever-expanding slimey steel rod as it grows and grows. You can't help but moan as the hands that once held you up put you down and slide up your flank, combining with the tool growing out of your [pc.ass] to form an androgynous centaur.

The taur like cum monster wastes no time, ramming its rod into you with a thrust of its powerful hips. Its forehooves become forearms, holding you and pulling your entire body back toward its trusts. Its long thrusts are punctuated by a wet staccato rhythm as its giant stallion cock beats your [pc.asshole] inward.

Soon your androgynous creampie-born aberration is railing you good, its humanoid half squealing with glee above you. The arms in place of its front legs continue yanking your body back as it stabs your insides with a now a cacophony of erotic violence. You're being stretched to the max and you can't help but love every second of it. The creature seems to know your [pc.asshole] almost as well as you do, which you guess makes sense considering where it came from.

As the gooey cum beast continues to pound you into senselessness you feel gravity shift and suddenly you're falling... until your head hits the floor of your room. Looking up you realize you've hit the deck, quite literally. With a chuckle you figure it must have all been a dream and silently smile at the crazy things the mind is capable of coming up with. As you get up and dust yourself off a bit, though, you find remnants of spunk on your fingertips, the very same cum that the creature from your dream was made of.

Vaginal Cum Beast

{if pc is vaginally filled:

Feeling heavy with exhaustion you decide it is time to go to sleep, good thing you're already in a nice and cozy bed. With a yawn you take a second to relax, getting more comfortable and finding that perfect position. You're settling in for a relaxing slumber when, suddenly, you feel wide awake. With an irritated huff you stubbornly snuggle deeper into the very inviting bed. It takes a second to realize you're really just not feeling it anymore. It is crazy because you were dog tired literally a few moments ago but now no matter how comfortable you get you just can't drift off into the sweet land of dreams. So you figure you'll wait, silently with your [pc.eyes] closed, and maybe you'll just go.

{if pc is biped:

With an irritated grunt you cross your arms, flat out refusing to get out of the comfy bed as you roll onto your back. As you lay there stubbornly trying to will yourself asleep your mind wanders and you fondly begin to remember some of your recent, adult-oriented activities with a grin.

Just at the memory of your [pc.pussy] being filled you begin to gush a bit beneath the covers. That is when you realize, for the first time, that you're as naked as the day you were born. Funny... you can't seem to remember whether you went to sleep nude or not, but you shrug it off because apparently you did.

All in all it isn't hard to figure out that the reason you suddenly can't sleep is because you're way hornier than you initially thought you were. If the puddle of wetness spreading around your [pc.ass] is any indication you desperately need to pleasure yourself. As the thought occurs to you your mind fills with thoughts of skilled tongues and hard cocks, thoughts that are so strong you can practically feel a tongue caressing your sensitive feminine opening.

With a soft moan you reach down to rub your [pc.clit] only to connect with something gooey and round.

With a yelp you throw off the covers and attempt to scramble away from whatever the fuck that is. Its strong arms hook around your [pc.legs], holding them open as the mouth gently licking your [pc.pussy] stops with the romantic foreplay and begins to really go to town. You watch as more of the creature's body spills out of your vagina, realizing with horror that it is forming from all of the cum that has been deposited inside of you. The creature grows until it is just a head, humanoid torso and arms. Its lower half is just a blob, as if it doesn't need to form legs, like some kind of slime monster made out of cum.

Your disbelieving [pc.eyes] watch as the the creature's head distorts, before it violently slams its face into your groin. You gasp as something phallic forms deep inside of you, combining with the rest of the creature. Yet even with that dick stretching your [pc.vagina] it never stops licking.

The cum creature must no longer feel the need to restrain you as you open your [pc.legs] wider to let it in. The androgynous half-formed blob simultaneously licks your most tender folds while fucking them with its face cock. Every thrust and lick combines into a masterful cacophony of sensation that burns out every other sensation. You watch as the cum monster begins to head bang, as if it were listening to some demented carnal song, which may very well be your voice from the way you scream and squeal at the odd but satisfying sensation of combined cunilingus and penetration.

Tears are flowing down your [pc.face] as the pleasure becomes more and more intense. You can't breathe and you're suddenly cumming. Your mind tries to make sense of the never ending orgasm but all you can do is convulse. Sensations like a lovely fire flows through you as you desperately claw at the cum monster's head, yet you're not sure if you're trying to push the dick tongued androgynous creature deeper or pull it off. Soon you're just screaming, [pc.legs] forming a wide V as [pc.girlcum] continuously flows out of you like a burst dam.

With an irritated grunt you cross your arms and refuse to get out of the comfy bed, despite having rolled onto your back. As you sit there stubbornly trying to will yourself asleep your mind wanders and you begin to fondly remember the more adult-oriented activities you've been getting into lately.

Just at the thought of your [pc.pussy] being filled you begin to gush a bit beneath the covers, your [pc.leg] getting wet as you spill what you assume to be [pc.girlCum] all over it beneath the covers. Funnily enough you can't seem to remember if you went to sleep naked or not but something feels a little... off.

With a shrug you figure the reason you can't get to sleep is because you're a lot hornier than you thought you were. The puddle of wetness is sliding down your sides, practically encasing you. That is when you feel yourself being lifted and pulled, as if the lady juices were, instead, a pair of arms.

Wait... that's not right.

Throwing the covers off you almost scream when you see some sort of gooey cum creature flowing from your vaginal opening like a torrent. The thing wraps its androgynous, aberrant self around your lower half, shifting into a torso and head with four pairs of arms.

That head forms right on top of your [pc.pussy] and instantly begins to lick and suck your sensitive vaginal walls, arms lifting and pulling your [pc.legs] to get a better angle. As it does you can't help but think about how that damn thing is really good at this, it's tongue and lips making your heart flutter.

and damn that thing has latched onto you tightly as it makes your heart flutter with some of the best oral you've ever had.

As if to prove itself to you the creature lifts its head, a cock forming smack dab in the middle of its featureless face, and then slams that face cock first into you.

The simultaneous sensations of expert cunnilingus and being pounded by a perfectly sized shaft sends you into rapid convulsions. You can't help but scream to the stars as [pc.girlCum] gushes from you like you've become some waterfall of carnality. The sensations are almost too intense and you feel yourself clawing at the creature's head, which only distorts under your fingers but never lets up its near violent assault on your nether region. You're also not quite sure if you're trying to pull the thing off or push it in deeper. Soon you're just howling like a madman, your [pc.leg] pushing your [pc.ass] off the bed's surface as you cum again and again from the oral machinations of this monster made of semen.

With an irritated grunt you cross your arms and refuse to get out of the comfy bed, instead rolling your body so that you may stretch each leg one by one. Then you lay your head on your crossed arms, stubbornly trying to will yourself asleep. Instead of drifting off your mind wanders, finding its way to your recent adult-oriented activities and causing you to smile to yourself.

Just at the memory of your [pc.pussy] being filled you begin to gush a bit beneath the covers. Funnily enough you can't seem to remember if you went to sleep naked or not but that is neither here nor there. You figure the reason you can't get any sleep is that you're a lot hornier than you thought you were. If the cascade of wetness trailing down your [pc.legs] is any indication you desperately need to masturbate. Unbidden thoughts of cunnilingus and intercourse are so strong in your mind's eye you can practically feel a gooey tongue and lips licking and kissing your vaginal lips with an almost sacred reverence.

Slowly you begin to realize that that sensation isn't in your head at all. Something is down there actually licking your pussy and doing a damn good job.

Whipping the blanket off you twist around only to see some androgynous, gooey face look up for a second, it's featureless face realizing the jig is up. Before you can even react it is shoving its face back into your [pc.vagina]. Where before it was gently savoring each lick, now it is greedily devouring your feminine folds in a way that makes it hard to concentrate. You attempt to roll yourself onto your wobbly legs only to find your [pc.knees] weak.

Tendrils of jizz shoot out from that cum blob in an attempt to keep it secured onto you, its tongue making you moan, gasp and curse. As your pussy is greedily eaten you make the cognitive leap required to realize just where this creature had to come from, your [pc.pussy] itself. Somehow it must have formed from the remnants of all the cum you had in there. Now like some pleasure parasite it is attempting to make you cum even more.

The tendrils lock your [pc.legs] together, rooting you on the spot. You begin to feel something phallic growing inside of you, spreading your feminine folds as wide as it can and, yet, you're still being licked.

The creature goes the fuck off. It hammers your pussy with its cock tongue and forces you to scream as you reach climax. The moment you begin to cum you don't stop, agonized pleasure made to last an eternity by the creature's carnal machinations. You thrash and howl until your voice goes hoarse.

Your [pc.eyes] suddenly snap open. Whoa that dream was intense and you chuckle in response to dreaming such things. You wipe your [pc.face] only to feel something wet clinging to your fingers. Looking down you see your hand is covered in the very same cum from your dream.
