

Hi Sam,

I noticed your massive following on Instagram, great testimonials/track record, and also stellar physique.

I help individuals like you monetize their skills in the most lucrative manners possible while still providing as much value as possible.

If that interests you, then I'd like to see if you are the qualified candidate that I believe you to be. Want to see if this is a good fit for you?

Hi Sam, I'd like to help you earn from your Instagram following. There is a variety of ways to move forward but they all start with getting to know each other. How does that sound?

Your course on Solin is a good start but you can be doing much more. I want to help you see what's possible for you given your current following on Instagram and TikTok

John you are sitting on a gold mine and I'm almost certain I have what you need to start capitalizing on it. I'd like to get to know you a bit better and verify that we can be profitable together before making any "bold unspecific promises" like all these other guys would. Let me know if that interests you

1 on 1 coaching is a limited avenue for sales because your time is limited. I have product and marketing ideas to change the game for you. But first let's start with Hi my name is Matthew Revord. I'd like to find out if you are a good fit for a mutually beneficial partnership. Are you interested in making more money?

Hey Jon, I've noticed your fitness account has lots of followers but you only have 1 affiliate product listed. You can make bank if you start selling extra value for your audience. I can likely help you take the next steps. Send a reply and we can see if it's a good fit

You already have the audience to be doing 100K+ per month. Let me help you make that a reality
