

1) Who exactly are we talking to?

I'm talking to Lauren. She is a 35-year-old successful business owner. She is smart, and driven, achieved all her career goals, and can happily support herself but she can't figure out her romantic life yet.

BACKGROUND:

As long as she can remember she always loved the idea of love and she's been in long-term relationships with different men all of her adult life. But those relationships never felt completely right and weren't healthy.

The reasons were mainly two: the men she dated were beneath her and they weren't at her caliber intellectually and financially or the men weren't honest and didn't want to commit and take things to the next level. (basically beta male vs alpha male, she wants alpha male + commitment).

All of her friends and family keep complimenting her telling her that any high-value man would be lucky to date her, but if that is true then why she hasn't found the right man yet?

In her early 30s, she wanted to start a family and believed she just had it to make it work with her past unfulfilling man, without stopping to ask whether she should in the first place. She kept telling herself he'd come around, but deep down she was terrified, what if he didn't?

She is in her mid-thirties and many times she thought about ending it, but then she looked around, and the idea of being single again was just depressing. "What If I leave him and end up unhappier with the next guy? Or what If I don't even find anyone?" she thought.

The relationship wasn't right and she felt ashamed for "trying too hard" or "wanting it too much," as if love and the desire for romantic connection aren't basic human needs.

Her parents didn't have a good relationship either, they always got into fights and argued and finally, they divorced. This makes her unable to ask her parents for advice because they aren't able to advise her. (this surely impacted her on some level mentally and emotionally).

Eventually, she decided to leave him and now she is single once again, although she always thought that once she hit 30 years old, she'd be married and with kids.

WHERE SHE IS MENTALLY AND EMOTIONALLY NOW:

she feels lost and stuck in dating attracting the same type of relationship or situationships where the man it's not high value or it is, but doesn't want to commit.

She is afraid of staying single for the rest of her life. Afraid of never finding the right person and can't ignore this because romantic love fills spaces in her heart that her life and other love (family, friends) just don't.

She thinks that she has to choose between the ambitious, driven, masculine high-value man or the man who wants to commit, but doesn't check all of her boxes and it's not at her caliber.

She believes that she has to make a compromise between life and love. If a man checks all of her boxes it means also that he'll never commit to her. She can't have it all and a happy fulfilling relationship was always something that was going to elude her.

She also believes that she cannot build a lasting loving relationship, that people change and move on, and that this is how things are. She feels demoralized by this mindset. She thinks that the best thing that she can get is some years of relationship from someone and then the cycle would repeat.

And after many relationships that would never progress to the next stage she worries about infertility now because her cycles are horribly irregular after years of birth control pills.

Now she's lost and is sick and tired of online dating because she never feels that she is going to meet her "man" that way.

She feels trapped in negative relationship patterns falling too hard and fast, mistaking red for green flags, and sacrificing her wants and needs to keep someone's mediocre investment.

She has experienced more than her fair share of disappointments and rejections and wonders whether finding love will ever happen for her. And she feels it's getting worse over the years

BELIEVES:

But Lauren believes in self-improvement and to cure her relationships and her body she already tried therapy, books, podcasts, YouTube videos of coaches, yoga, and reiki/herbalist healers monthly. (a form of alternative therapy commonly referred to as energy healing, originated in Japan and it involves the practitioner channeling energy into the patient to promote healing and relaxation).

Although all of this was extremely helpful, She was still feeling utterly stuck. She knows she needs to go deeper within herself in order to find the love and relationship that she so desperately wanted her entire life.

She wants to bring out the high-value woman she knows she is inside defeating the gallon of issues that she has around self-worth and manifest the right men in her life.

She is also a people pleaser and this doesn't help her with men because she is unable to set boundaries.

She believes that if she understands how men think, unlocks her inner confidence, and gets rid of her inner limiting beliefs/sabotaging thoughts, she then will be able to express herself as a high-value woman and set boundaries so eventually the right man will come up to her.

She also thinks that she's not a "love coach" kind of girl. She is smart and that's all hokey for women who must be desperate.

But she also thinks that if she wants the results she's never gotten before, she has to do something she's never done before.

DREAM STATE:

Her dream life is to be married to a successful man, live in her dream house, and have kids. The man is both emotionally and financially stable, he is fit and is a man who is her equal and not beneath her in any way.

The man adores her and doesn't only check all the boxes, but there is also good chemistry between them because sometimes a man checks all the boxes but it doesn't feel good, it doesn't feel right.

She is now in a place where when she expresses her need he can meet her so much sooner and turn the tables from arguing or being moody with each other to being loving, understanding, and supportive.

He bought her an engagement ring when she didn't expect it to happen!

Her ideal man has every quality she wanted in him and he's super supportive. They don't fight with her or say harsh words and their intimacy is incredible.

She feels calm knowing that she finally has the healthy relationship they deserve with the man who truly loves her, values her, respects her, makes her feel like she's "The One" and doesn't want to let her go, but at the same time he allows her space and it's not obsessive. And she also has the security that it will LAST FOREVER. This makes her feel calm and secure because her relationship isn't casual anymore, it's heading forward and her man isn't just stringing her along.

She wants to impress all of her friends and parents showing that she finally found the right man.

A man with whom she can relax and be in her feminine energy feeling empowered because she is both feminine and powerful.

She already has good friends, an exciting social life, manifested good job and good money, and hobbies they love, but romantically she wasn't there yet. But now she's there and love is the icing on the cake of her life.

If it's not married yet:

She doesn't feel frustrated anymore. She thinks that every man should ask her out and that she should be going on at least three dates every week because she is a beautiful intelligent young woman and this is what she deserves.

She doesn't feel frustrated anymore because the man has good communication, he asks her genuine questions and doesn't make her wonder if he is interested in her or not.

The man finally drives 90 minutes to happily see her and it's not the other way around. He is making and meeting her effort and investment.

The men of her dreams also believe in manifestation and she's not afraid that her dream man will end up with another woman (who maybe isn't as good as a match) because she knows better the language of attraction than her.

She feels secure and calm that she can manifest her dream man.

It's also a question of energy and the universe, you know?

2) WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

My target market is solution-aware and as regards market sophistication is stage 4/5. I'm gonna start the conversation by calling out the solution (I mean the mechanism which is manifestation) and then make the program seem bigger, unique, and better in the market, but I will also make a subtle niche downplay toward successful business/career women who believe in manifestation.

As regards where are they in my funnel, I assume they are following my prospect on IG and Facebook. They may be subscribed to my prospect newsletter and get some free value out of it. Maybe they bought one single low-cost course in the past for 100$ and now or maybe they never bought anything yet

However, they are feeling some sort of pain right now and want to commit to taking action and investing in themselves. I think it's better if I address more the pain because it's what it's making them enter the "imaginary door" of my prospect "shop".

They are at the stage of their life now (mid-30s) where they already tried many things before and time is their enemy. Calling the pain I think it is much better than calling the desire. They're in a situation mentally where they feel that this is the last shot, last chance, last resort to find their dream man.

Their certainty lvl is ok. They already kinda believe the idea will work, because they believe in this manifestation thing. They already believe in investing in themselves. My prospect has social proof of other women who have managed to manifest their dream partner. The product is aimed at successful women who believe in manifestation so it fits closely with their situation.

The trust lvl is ok I think. My prospect has some primal leadership indicators such as money, my is a successful woman herself with her business and travels. She has social proof and people are familiar with her because they already follow her on Instagram/Facebook I assume, although she doesn't have a lot of followers but is successful because she's good at monetizing her attention.

Pain/Desire from what I've seen is low. It's my job to amplify it and to create a more detailed and compelling vision. Pain/Desire will make the copy better and it will drive people to take action.

3) WHERE DO I WANT THEM TO GO?

I want them to read my copy and decide to buy the program. The price that my prospect is asking for it's not low. it's high (500$/month per 6-12 months) and my prospect also doesn't offer a refund or guarantees so it's my job to decrease the cost threshold and increase the pain/desire. Time is also high (6 months to 1 year), and sacrifice is not low they need to make some effort.

The main part of my copy will be pain/desire and I will lower the certainty threshold and trust threshold by making comparisons and using personality because it's the only thing that I can use.

I think that increasing the pain/desire state is the most important thing I need to do.

4) WHAT ARE THE STEPS I NEED TO TAKE THEM THROUGH TO TAKE THEM FROM WHERE THEY ARE NOW TO WHERE I WANT THEM TO GO?

How will I get their attention?

I will call their attention with pain initially, but I also try to add some sort of desire, just a little touch.

How will I increase specific lvls?

I will increase pain/desire lvls calling their frustration and their dream state.

How will I bring down perceived costs and thresholds?

I will compare how much time and money they're spending already. I will call the fact that they believe they should invest in themselves. I will make a 2-way close and lower certainty and trust lvl and increase trust and certainty with testimonials.

ROADBLOCK AND SOLUTION:

In this case, the roadblock is that my target audience has negative thought patterns and negative emotions that are keeping them from manifesting what they desire. They are stuck in the same unfulfilling type of relationships.

My target audience is already problem-aware and solution-aware, by this I mean that they already know that they need to do some internal work and they already know and believe that manifestation will work.

The solution is to start to think positively be conscious of negative patterns and heal emotionally and mentally.

The product will be the solution that they were waiting for, the best way to achieve the solution aka dreamstate.

PERSONAL ANALYSIS:

I haven't tested my copy yet.

Despite knowing that my target market is solution-aware I approached the copy from a problem-aware level, this is because I saw top competitors VSL and they were doing this. I don't think is bad because when I introduce roadblock and solution I do it very briefly because I already know that my audience kinda knows it, but I'm not sure if this is the best move.

But I also think that my audience is solution-aware only because they already believe in the mechanism of manifestation and that I included first in the headline.

So are they completely solution-aware? I don't think so. They are more in a stage between problem-aware and solution-aware.

The biggest dilemma that I have is about the price though. My prospect has 3 options and I tried to frame 1 option as the best so it will be preferred compared to others, but I don't know if I have done a good job.

I didn't want to introduce a money-back guarantee because my prospect doesn't use it yet and I don't think he wants it, so for now I just want to avoid it and take it one step and a time.

But even if I wanted to include a money-back guarantee I don't know what could be the best way in this scenario.

A 1 month-money back guarantee? My prospect already offers only 1 month with no commitment, but she makes people pay for it.

So it's tricky. If we wanted to introduce a money-back guarantee I think we should remove the 1 month only payment.

NEW REQUIREMENTS:

I already answered the new requirements above about they level of sophistication, personal analysis, if I tested my copy, etc...

COPY ANALYSIS

VSL Headline:

If you are sick and tired of unfulfilling time-depleting relationships and ready to manifest once and for all the real loving committed relationship that you have always dreamt of since you were a little girl, then watch this NOW:

Alternative headline:

If you are sick and tired of unfulfilling time-depleting relationships and ready to manifest once and for all the lifelong committed relationship that you have always wanted since you were a little girl, then watch this NOW:

Hi, my name is [name] and in the next few minutes, I'm gonna show you how you can become the woman capable of manifesting the lasting loving commitment you deserve. And stand out as the woman whom men can see themselves with forever, but not just anyone, I'm talking about an incredibly high-caliber man, just like you, who values you, supports you, invests in you, and never wants to let you go.

AMPLIFY PAIN/DESIRE SECTION

But first, I want you to know that:

- If you feel stuck in attracting the same type of relationships that would never progress into the next stage,
- If you are afraid that time is running out for you and that you will stay single for the rest of your life never finding the right person to be with,
- If after you have experienced more than your fair share of disappointments and rejections, and now you wonder if the love you desire will ever happen for you or if it is just going to elude you forever,
- If you you completely lost hope that you'll find a man capable of leading you with his hand on your lower back introducing you to his family and friends as his future wife,

- And you are at the point now that you think that you have to make a compromise on the love you deserve, that you have to choose between a man who doesn't want to commit to you or a man who does but it's not right for you, that you can't have it all...

I just want to tell you that you are not alone in this my love.

After helping thousands of smart, driven, successful women, just like you, finally manifest their ultimate soulmates, I noticed how they all had one thing in common that was stopping them from achieving their romantic desires.

Some of them were single, and some of them were in an unhealthy relationship for years that didn't feel right, but they all had this one single thing in common that was keeping them from manifesting the love they deserved and instead was only driving them away, year after year, from their ultimate romantic desire.

AUTHORITY SECTION

But before I tell you what this number one thing was, you're probably wondering why the heck should you listen to me.

Well, I'm an inspirational speaker and spiritual intuitive guide, and after 20 years of self-study on NLP (neurolinguistic reprogramming), EFT (Emotional Freedom Technique), and obtaining other certifications in a variety of healing modalities I became a master in the art of manifestation.

I'm the author of the book Destination: Soulmate released in February 2020 and been featured in:

But all of this it's not important because what is important here is YOU.

After seeing the effect that my book teachings had on many women all over the world, I decided to embark on a mission to awaken smart, driven women, like you, to their full potential so they can manifest the love of their lives and the life of their dreams!

And if you are like the other women that I have helped out there: you are smart, driven, achieved all of your career goals, you can happily support yourself, and have an exciting life but no one to share it with, wondering what could go wrong with your romantic life, what you can't quite seem to understand...

I want to tell you that it's not your fault.

ROADBLOCK AND SOLUTION SECTION

You see, it doesn't really matter what you have learned by reading books, watching videos or listening to podcasts, it doesn't matter if you already tried therapy, attended workshops, or even gone to a matchmaker

It doesn't even matter if, disheartened, you also tried different approaches to dating apps,

It will WONT WORK.

Because it doesn't matter what you learn, where you go, or what you do in regards to manifesting lifelong love.

It's WHO YOU ARE BEING that matters.

If you are in a place of fear and despair, reality will stick to your energy and will never bring you the relationship that you so crave, but this is a good thing because it means that you have control over it.

When you've embodied the woman who trusts herself, who believes she can have everything she desires, who radiates in her feminine energy that she's ready for partnership and ready for the lifelong love she deserves, reality will catch up to this energy and you will manifest it into your life.

INTRODUCTION TO THE PROGRAM

But [name], I already know this and I'm trying, but I just don't know how to do it, it just won't happen...

That's exactly why I have created [program].

image of the program here

[program] is the culmination of all of the transformational online programs that I have created through the years that will not only teach you but hand you, all the tools you need to fast-track you to finally embody the most powerful feminine woman capable of manifesting the lasting, heart-flutteringly passionate, romantic, deliriously happy, fully committed relationship that you deserve.

It works whether you are single, whether you are just getting out of a 20-year unfulfilling marriage, or any situation in between.

You'll learn and master:

Self Love: no more negative self-talk. No more telling yourself why you're not good enough, pretty enough, or talented enough. Instead, you'll become the confident woman who knows she can have the partner of her dreams!

High-Level Communication: no more games, blaming, or drama. Instead, you'll speak your needs and desires in a way that is understood so that all conflicts are resolved with love and you never have to worry about a fight or disagreement leading to a blow-up or break-up!

Establishing Healthy Boundaries: It's not all about him & what he wants. That is NOT the way to win his heart. Instead, you'll understand what you truly need & set loving boundaries that bring the two of you closer together (and ensure lasting intimacy!)

Feminine & Masculine Energetics: get out of your wounded masculine energy (the woman who has her guard up & doesn't really trust men) and into the healthy receptive feminine energy that allows the right types of men to step up and serve her. (This also ensures lasting passion in the bedroom!)

Flirting: get ready to have men chasing you down on the street to ask for your number once you become a mistress at opening your heart and engaging life (and men) with a playful, receptive energy.

Dating: how (and where) to meet & date high-caliber men who are ready to commit and how to be that irresistible woman on a date to ensure the next one is in the books!

Intuition: how to hear your intuition, discern which men are right for you (and tell the truth), and never doubt yourself again! (No more asking everyone else for their opinions because you know what is right for you!)

Spiritual Connection: how to let go of control and instead trust the Universe to provide the perfect partner for you in divine timing (no more worry, anxiety, or micro-managing)

Manifestation: how to master conscious creation (ie manifestation) in regards to love, career, finances, the dream home... anything you desire... for the rest of your life!

so you can of course...

Attract the lifelong lasting committed love with the type of partner your heart craves to be with.

FIRST TESTIMONIAL SECTION

Since joining [program] hundreds of women have fallen in love and got the committed relationship of their dreams as a result of following what I teach inside:

TESTIMONIALS IMAGES

AMPLIFY PAIN/ DESIRE SECTION

So let me ask you a question, if you could snap your fingers right now and get your ideal relationship, what it would feel like? what it would look like?

[pause]

I have a feeling that is more about the little things like receiving an unexpected text in the middle of your work day from the man you admire saying: "I can't believe you're mine!", even after you've been together for years. This is the beauty and the romance of a long-lasting commitment

Well you don't have to imagine this, you can have it!

PRE-INTRODUCTION OF THE PRICE SECTION

With [program] I'm handing to you the blueprint and the tools perfectly curated and cataloged in one groundbreaking program to manifest exactly the relationship that you are imagining.

You'll get instant access to:

- Over 30 courses, programs plus trainings with new content added monthly

- Monthly group mentorship calls to support you in embodying what you learn & moving through challenges as they come up (plus access to the library of all past group calls)
- Private Facebook community to form relationships with your soul sisters and rise together
- A library consisting of over 50 guided meditations & hypnosis with new ones added monthly

So you can finally have the relationship that you have been waiting so long.

For so long you have been settling with men who couldn't or wouldn't give you the happiness that you deserve. It's time to stop settling, to stop wasting time that you cannot get back.

And if you are like most women in addition to wasting time you spend thousands and thousands of dollars a year on your love life:

when you add the dating app memberships, the money that you may have spent in therapy or even for a matchmaker, the countless first date outfits, the flying tickets and vacations with the man that you thought was the one for you, but after all of your effort he still didn't want to commit to you...

But there is a difference between spending money and making an investment.

[program] is an investment that you are making in you, your self-worth, and your lifelong happiness.

INTRODUCTION TO THE 3 OPTIONS OF PAYMENT

Of course, I will never charge you this much, even if [program] means that you can finally manifest the loving relationship of your dreams, and you probably know that the value of true love from someone who cares about you and has always your back has no price.

You see I wanted to make this program the most accessible possible for you because by investing in [program] you are finally saying to yourself:

"I'm ready to manifest the love of my life NOW, this is a gift that I'm finally giving to myself.

I want the tools to overcome my roadblocks and manifest the relationship of my dreams with a man who deserves me."

For this reason, to reward your commitment, I decided to offer you 3 ways that you can access [program]

A 6-month manifestation journey with full access to all the programs for only 555$ a month:

This is for the woman who's ready for the lifelong love waiting for her and have a burning desire to manifest the relationship of her dreams in the next 6 months (if not sooner!)

A 12-month manifestation journey with full access to all the programs for only 444$ a month:

This is for the woman who needs a little bit more time to invest in herself, to heal and feel more secure that she has a 12-month time to finally become the confident woman capable of manifesting the lifelong love waiting for her.

A 1-month access to [program] for 599$:

This is for the woman who for whatever reason doesn't feel ready yet.

Normally I wouldn't offer an option like this because if you don't have that burning desire, if you aren't serious about investing in yourself and manifesting the loving relationship that your heart desperately asks for then you never will.

But I understand that maybe you just want to see first what all of this is about, so I decided to offer you this chance only because I'm so sure that you'll love so much [program] and you will want to upgrade from there.

2 WAY CLOSE, REALLY AMPLIFY PAIN/DESIRE, LAST CTA

Look if you are still here, well this could be the most important decision of your life and there are only 2 options that you can choose right now:

Option 1 is for you to leave this page and ignore that feeling of emptiness and unfulfillment.

Ignore that feeling deep in your heart that craves so desperately for real love, and go back to giving your heart to the wrong men who don't value you and leave you only bruised and feeling worthless.

A life where real commitment from a man that you can admire will always elude you, leaving you behind schedule on the romantic love of your dreams as time continues to pass you by and by.

But since you are here, I assume this is not an option for you.

You are a driven woman who is ready for what she desires and now you need guidance to manifest the dream for the perfect romantic committed relationship that you had since you were a little girl.

Otherwise, you wouldn't be here

Which only leaves you with option 2:

say yes to investing in yourself, and let me hand you years of knowledge that will allow you to embody the woman capable of manifesting and attracting a fully committed relationship with the man that you admire.

A man who knows what he wants and cares about you like you are "The One" for him, but still allows you space to be feminine and powerful.

In fact, imagine how calm and confident would you feel knowing that you are in a relationship with a man who's not playing you, but instead makes you feel secure knowing that your love is strong and lasting.

Just imagine how calm and at peace would you feel that even in a tough argument he doesn't say harsh words or storm off, but instead he says "hey, I love you and I'm not going anywhere".

Imagine how impressed and happy your family and friends would be when they finally see that your romantic life now is a success too.

Imagine how confident and at peace would you feel in a few weeks knowing that you'll find soon the committed loving relationship that you deserve.

All of this because you said a tiny yes today and a BIG NO to not waste your time anymore.

Because it is time the bigger cost at the end:

Every minute spent not finding love is robbing you of a minute spent on your future committed relationship.

And If you continue to waste time, I understand if you might think "Will there ever be left a minute for my future relationship?"

Stop waiting, click the button below, and start manifesting NOW!
