RESPONDENT'S SUBMISSIONS

Instructions

You may format these headings however you like, but they must be presented accordingly in their respective Parts to the chronology provided below. Delete these instructions and the highlighted yellow text once you have completed filling those particulars. You may find your case number in the respective reddit thread that serves as the formal 'base' of the hearing you are appearing in.

Part I: [A factual background provided from the perspective of the respondent.]

Part II: [A concise statement of the issues that the respondent seeks to raise and their relevance as to the facts provided in Part I.]

Part III: [A statement of any material facts set out in the applicant's narrative of the facts, or in their chronology that are contested by the respondent and raised in Part I.]

Part IV: [A statement of arguments in answer to the argument raised by the applicant or raised by the Court.]

Part VI: [Where applicable, a notice of contention in the event where the respondent seeks to 'countersue'. Do not file your countersuit attached to this. Do that in a separate submission where you become the applicant. Refer to.]

Dated: [eg 1 January 2024]

Your Signature

[Username of Senior sim-practitioner presenting the case or Applicant if self-represented]

Appendix: [Attach any evidence you feel appropriate or necessary to support your case.]
