

Hello! Thanks for your interest in usability testing! This program is in place for our UX design team to partner with our User Research team through an ongoing mentorship program. If you have questions about UR, please contact [name] instead of completing this form. Thank you.

(Please make a copy)

Your Name:

What project needs usability testing? (e.g., Firefox for Android)

What artifacts are available for testing? (e.g., InVision prototype)

What existing data or research has informed this work?

What are you interested in learning from this user research? (e.g., Study goal)

Is there a specific population you would like to test with? (e.g., Firefox for Android users)

How will you make use of the results?

What is your timeline?