I have multiple accounts and it's just much easier to handle reports on my main account. The Abolition Feed Assistant (@abolition.bsky.social) is fine for less time sensitive things.

The Abolition feed is an inclusive place. MAGA is not welcome here. This feed does not entertain "both sides" as equally valid. We have our hands full with carceral democrats.

Racists and bigots are not welcome here. Transphobes and homophobes are not welcome here. Misogynists are not welcome here. Ableists are not welcome here.

Transparency:

First let's start with the feed logic which can be found here. This is how the feed pulls in posts. I plan on tagging these nodes to better explain what's going on. Please reach out if you have questions, suggestions, or complaints.

This is a personal project that will always remain free. Currently I am not accepting donations. Please direct your money to an org or an incarcerated person.

I don't know what the future of this platform will be. If this feed requires payment one day to operate, I will first try to go with a donation only model, just to keep the lights on. The next move would be to open sponsorships up to abolition orgs and groups, with funds in excess of what's needed to keep the lights on going towards an org. I don't want to make money here. I just want a better world.

I do not post a lot about abolition on my main account because I feel I have less to offer in terms of insightful commentary, but I do think I have a lot to offer in connecting like-minded individuals with this feed and it's a project I believe in. Thank you to everyone who advances the cause.
