

The Nominating Committee (Nom-Com) is now accepting nominations for Session elders and new Nom-Com members for 2027. Any current church member is eligible to be nominated for either Session elder or Nom-Com member.

For context, the current session elders are Margie Chiang, Clare Crawford, Irene Fong, Albert Jew, and Matt McDonell. The current Nom-Com members are Matt Crawford, Shawn Hannon, Patty Ramich, and Paul Yee, along with Albert and Matt representing the Session.

Session elders serve a 3-year term, and together with the pastor are the decision-making body that leads and cares for the church. Please prayerfully consider submitting a nomination for one or more people that you believe God may be calling to serve our congregation in this role. We are accepting nominations to fill two or three elder positions: one position was left vacant last year, and both Margie Chiang and Irene Fong are completing their 3-year terms at the end of 2026 (because it is the first term for both of them, they are eligible for renomination). You may submit as many nominations for elder as you feel led to submit.

We will also be receiving nominations for two new members of the Nom-Com as Matt Crawford and Paul Yee are completing their two-year term.

To submit a nomination, be sure to include the name of the person you are nominating, whether you are nominating them for session elder or Nom-Com member, and a brief explanation of why you are nominating them. Nominations can be given in writing to any current Nom-Com member, or sent via email to NomCom2026@gfccsf.org.

The last day to submit nominations is Sunday, June 28th.
