Mission: Oak Hills Football MS camp is designed to provide athletes with an instruction to both MS and HS football in a variety of facets: Offense, Defense and Special Teams schematic. We focus on teaching players the techniques they will need to develop their game at the next level. We also instruct players about dedication and teamwork. We strive to make this camp not only a learning experience but also a chance for campers to compete against each other with daily competitions while building friendships and leadership opportunities. Campers are grouped according to their ages to allow them to compete against other campers of their skill level.

Above all else HAVE FUN!
