CHALLENGE

1. Go through the STAR method example
2. Introduce the group activity
  - a. Divide participants into pairs or small groups and provide them with the STAR method activity sheet
  - b. Ask the participants to share their answers to the example interview questions within their groups, providing feedback whenever possible
  - c. Briefly debrief as a whole group: how successful were you in following the STAR method to answer the question(s)? Did it help you to structure your answers? Why or why not? Why do you think this is such a common interview strategy? Have you ever encountered it during an interview before?
