

CMS November News

- Student Council elections were held at the middle school. This year we focused on campaigning and how to maintain a positive community when running for elected positions.
- The Jr. High Musical, Newsies, was a great success! The MS was able to watch a half hour of the show so students could showcase their hard work.
- Students had multiple options to participate on Halloween. Some dressed in costumes while others wore school spirit. In keeping with the annual tradition of the senior parade, our students lined the middle school bus circle to look at our seniors' costumes.
- In our Caz Lakers Unite time we are talking about "Other People Matter" and the expectations of how we treat people.
- We will have our Go Home Early drill in November.
- Students did a wonderful job presenting their Haudenosaunee projects in social studies. Students took weeks to research and then were able to present their area of study, along with homemade projects to their classmates.
