

Subject line: Be better

Hi, my name is David. Today, I found your website and noticed 2 things

First of all, It is dam near Impossible to find your brand Instead, I found Facebook accounts of 30 to 40-year-old men.

To find you, I had to type in a watch I remembered from your page with your brand name to locate you.

As I browsed through the watches, I noticed something about how you decided to sell that if you chanced could really improve your revenue and success.

After looking at the best competitors in your niche, I can conclude that you have two problems. The first one is attention - your brand lacks attention, which, in this modern day and age, is the most important.

Luckily for you, as a strategic partner and problem solver, I can and will help you with that.

To remove any risk for you, I will make you an offer - I will help you with your attention problem, and only if you are satisfied with my services, you pay me. To respect both our time, I have decided to offer this only for the next three days, so get back to me as fast as you can.

If you allow me to, I would love to help you and the brand achieve more success and get your watches in the arms of the top 1%.

After you have decided if you would like to keep me as a Copywriter, I would also love to help you with your second problem, which will increase your conversion rate.

To see if we are a good fit, I would love to have a video call with you.

Just email me for an appointment.

Hi Gs, I finished my outreach mission, and I decided to go with an expensive watch store. I truly cannot put a value on how much your feedback's worth to me, I love to read it. So please leave some.
