My Goals Achieved

- Providing my Mother 1k/ month

As I am developing my skill and earning more and more money I finally reached the point where I can give my mother the income she needs to potentially live in Russia and have a good life. She will be happy and proud of me. Finally I kept my promise to her and I can feel the joy of making her proud.

- Live in Valencia (Spain)

Once I make money with my first few clients I can finally move to Spain and leave the country I live in right now. Imagine the feeling and the reactions of the others when I move to Spain. I can invite my friends and live where they dream to go. It will be one of the best moments in my life, especially because I love Spain super much and that will be also the first step of my plan, where I want to live in the future. So 50% of the plan is done. Only Dubai left...

- Generating $10K In Revenue:

It's just the beginning of my journey. It wasn't actually that hard to reach these numbers, just stay professional. And all the hard work will pay off. I've also reached a point where I can start to invest my money and multiply it. As time continues I will have time, location and financial freedom.

My Rewards Earned

- Going to the club, taking the VIP table and just enjoying the night. We are having fun and remembering the good old days. With us are some beautiful girls. We laugh, we feel joy, we have a good time and we hear all the music and laughter around us. It feels incredible as the different colored lights hit our eyes.

- Visit a new country with my family. Exploring the rich cultures and food that we couldn't afford before. Money won't be a problem. The landscape will be especially breathtaking. As we continue our holiday my heart fills with joy seeing my family happy. We enjoy the whole day, making jokes, traveling and living our lives. One Moment we will take off, as I hear the beautiful sound of the sea, feeling the warm sand below my bare foot realizing what is just happening.
- Buying a scooter that I can drive with. Driving along the sea, the hot sun is burning on my head as the cool wind refreshes me. While driving I look at the sea and see the beautiful sunset. I will hear the seagulls and the sea. After my drive I will drink a cold cocktail in a bar, call my family or some friend and just enjoy the rest of the night.

My Appearance And How Others Perceive Him

- Straight walk with a clear intention of where I want to go. You can feel my confidence and my aura that puts pressure on the people as I walk by. My strong presence will also make all the people look at me , because people can feel when someone dangerous walks past.
- I will wear well fitted clothes that make me stand out from the rest. Also my muscles and strong upper body improve my fit by far. The elegance of my clothes plus my straight appearance will cause looks that people haven't seen for a while. They should know based on my clothes and my style, damn he is a player and they will know that I have money.
- The people will be polite and respectable to me. The same is for me as I will treat everybody with respect and kindness. I will appear as a gentleman knowing how to talk and when to talk. And when I talk, people will listen. My higher language skills also make me seem smarter, because I talk clearly without interruption like ah or ähm that makes me seem dumb. Clear sentences and high language skills even though english is not my first language. I will also speak a bit of Spanish at that time.

My Day In The Life Stories.

- I wake up early, refreshed from a solid night's sleep. The first thing that my eyes see is the beautiful sea while the hot sun is already burning on my head. With this first beautiful view I start brewing my coffee and enjoying it on my balcony. I start putting on some relaxed clothes to feel comfortable while working. I feel proud of myself and excited to conquer the day.
- My daily checklist is clear in my mind as I sit down in my home office. For a good start in the day, I start with a prayer followed by my daily manifestation to know where I have to move and to keep seeing my goals that I want to move forward to. I feel strong and full of energy, not being able to wait to finally start to work, as I want to feel the real dopamine of hard work.
- After a good start to the day, I will train to keep my energy levels high and come one step closer to my ideal version of me. Before the Training I will nutrite my body with natural fruits to give my body the vitamins it needs. After I finished my training , feeling full of energy and proud of myself, I go in the city to eat something, as I deserved it, after some hard work. My dopamine levels shoot high again, as I take the first bite of my well deserved food. Hydrated and with a full stomach I go back home, ready to continue winning.
- As the day comes to an end. I start enjoying the rest of the day, but still working and building connections inside the war room. Feeling satisfied and proud of myself that I mastered the day again, I still analyze what I could improve to get even better. I have some time calling my friends and family to keep good connections, as I provided massive results for my clients again. To finish the day I either go to the beach to meditate and be thankful to god or I spend time in the investing campus to multiply my money as much as possible.
- Before bed, I spend time visualizing my next day, my next victory. I see myself traveling to a new country, exploring and experiencing different cultures—a reward for my hard work. To close the day I thank god real quick again for everything I have and finally fall asleep to a restful night.
